Allied Columns In Hot Pursuit Of Running Communists; U. N. Armies Cross 38th Parallel In Six Points All Along The Front

By Don Huth

Tokyo, Sunday, May 27. — (AP) — More than 60,000 Chinese Reds were "running like hell" into North Korea today under Allied artillery and air bombardment but 2,000 were trapped south of the 38th parallel.

Flight of the Communists neared a panic as Allied columns in hot pursuit plunged across 38 at six points in the east, central and west-central areas.

"They don't like the enemy behind them any more than we do. So they are running like hell," a frontline officer said.

AP Correspondent Jim Becker said the trapped 2,000 made a desperate, unsuccessful three hour, pre-dawn fight to break out of the trap near Chunchon, 45 miles northeast of Seoul.

Everywhere onrushing Allied troops found evidence of panic. Truckloads of rice and ammunition were left behind. Many of the Reds discarded their uniforms and apparently sought to escape in civilian clothes.

At Eighth army headquarters a briefing officer said at least 60,000 Chinese Reds were retreating on the central and east central fronts alone.

The new Eighth army strategy of quick pursuit after stopping the latest Red offensive was paying off—in a slaughter of fleeing Reds, in a fattening bag of prisoners.

United Nations troops met only delaying actions as they swept forward on a line stretching from the Yellow sea in the west to the Sea of Japan in the east.

Night and day pounding by Allied artillery and warplanes seemed to have taken the fight out of the Chinese. They were giving

U. S. CALLS FOR OIL SETTLEMENT

Wants Three-Point Deal That Would Meet Iran's Demand For Nationalization

Washington, May 26. —(AP)— The United States called today for a three point settlement of the Anglo - Iranian oil controversy which would meet Iran's demand for nationalization of its vast oil industry.

The American government declared in a note to Tehran that it is convinced negotiations — between Iran and Britain — can produce a settlement which will:

1. "Satisfy the desires of the Iranian people to control their own resources."
2. "Protect legitimate British interests."
3. "Assure uninterrupted flow of Iranian oil to its wolrd markets."

The American note added that a settlement along these lines is "of the utmost importance not only to the welfare of the two powers concerned but to that of the entire free world."

The Iranians were warned that in the U. S. government's opinion the present controversy if badly handled "could undermine the unity of the free world and seriously weaken it."

The obvious purpose of the note, which was delivered to the foreign office in Tehran today by Ambasador Henry F. Grady, was to assure the Iranian government that the United States, in previously urging a friendly negotiated settlement, was not interfering in Iranian affairs and to say that it would not interfere in the future.

However, the wording of the note appeared to go beyond this ostensible aim and say to the Iranians that they can count upon obtaining British agrement to their na-

DR. SUTTON TO GIVE ADDRESS

Noted Georgia Educator Will Deliver Neville's Commencement Address

Dr. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent emeritus of the Atlanta, Ga., public schools, past president of the National Education Association, and former guest lecturer, will be the speaker at the commencement of Neville High School on the night of June 7.

From a Georgia plantation and early education in a one-teacher country school and in a high school that he reached daily after a 16-mile ride on horseback, Doctor Sutton made his way to college and university, studied law, became a teacher and for 23 years served as a highly able and unusually original superintendent of schools in Atlanta.

For his educational work, colleges and universities gave him a number of degrees and for his wise, inspiring and humorous advice, teachers throughout the nation called on him to speak year after year in their assemblies and made him president of the National Educational Association.

His eloquence, humor and personality have made him popular throughout the nation.

Supt. J. M. Boyet states that he feels highly honored to be able on behalf of the Monroe City school board to present such an able man as the commencement speaker for the Neville High School this year.

Britain Requests Use Of Force In Dispute

By Nels Slis

The Hague, The Netherlands, May 26. — (AP) — Britain and the billion dollar Anglo-Iranian Oil Company asked the International Court of Justice to force Iran to submit to arbitration in the peace-threatening dispute over nationalization of oil.

U. S. Ambassador Henry F. Grady handed to the Iranian foreign minister in Tehran a note declaring the dispute was of the utmost importance to the "entire free world" and strongly urging a settlement by negotiation.

The United States plainly was worried that the situation might lead to the intervention of troops from both Britain and Russia.

Dispatches from Tehran told of unconfirmed reports that some of Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's national bloc at last were willing to sit down with the British for talks.

It remained to be seen, however, how Mossadegh and his fiery followers would react to the latest developments.

These included not only Britain's appeal to the Hague and the United States' urging of negotiations, but also the announcement Friday that 4,000 British parachute troops are being dispatched to Cyprus in the eastern Mediterranean—within 1,000 miles of the Abadan refinery in Iran.

The Anglo-Iranian Oil Company (A. I. O. C.) asked the president of the international court of jus-

Demos Forget Eisenhower At Denver Meet

Denver, May 26. —(AP)— General Dwight D. Eisenhower was practically the forgotten man when Democrats put new push behind President Truman's foreign and domestic programs here.

The five - star general, who commands the north Atlantic defense force, has been mentioned as a possible Republican — or Democratic — nominee for president.

But if Eisenhower is to figure in the Democratic picture, most of the party's national committee members who would comment on the possibility apparently felt that President Truman will have to put him there.

About the only mention of Eisenhower's name came when presidential adviser W. Averell Harriman praised the efforts of the general to organize western Europe's

REDS GIVEN NEW CHANCE FOR PEACE

Outline Of Terms For Cease Fire Given At Hearing By General Collins

Washington, May 26. —(AP)— The Communist high command now has an opportunity to consider whether it is willing to listen to Korean peace terms worked out by the 14 United Nations with troops in Korea.

An outline of the terms was provided publicly for the first time yesterday in the testimony of Gen. J. Lawton Collins, army chief of staff, in the senate MacArthur hearings. Up to then, the matter had been a secret.

In broad outline, the United Nations were shown to feel that with the Communist aggressors in Korea being driven back to the 38th parallel the Communists could be invited to cease fire and agree to a settlement of outstanding issues by negotiation.

While the peace proposal talk dated back to March or earlier, diplomatic authoritites attached considerable importance to its disclosure at this time. In other words it was said to be not necessarily a dead document but one which even as of now places before Communist China and the Russians the basis of a possible settlement of the Korean war — a sort of peace feeler from the Allied side.

Emphasis on the liveliness of the document is supplied by the fact that today the Allied and Communist armies are onec more in the close neighborhood of the 38th parallel — the starting line of the war.

Believes Russia Concerned Over Red Losses In Korea

By Ed Creagh

Washington, May 26. —(AP) — The Army's Chief of Staff, Gen. J. Lawton Collins, voiced belief today that Russia "is beginning to get concerned" about increasingly heavy Chinese Communist casualties in Korea.

Collins said also that a peace settlement "is always possible" on the basis of the 38th parallel — the just re - crossed by United Nations forces in their great counter-offensive.

Winding up two days of testimony to senate committees investigating committee, Collins refused to budge from his statement yesterday that MacArthur "violated a policy" by sending American troops close to the Manchurian border last fall.

The army chief disclosed that he has asked "a slight increase" in the size of the army, which would bring total manpower above the present goal of 3,462,000. But he said total strength would be under 4,000,000 even with the proposed increase.

Collins gave the senators, too, his own estimate of Russia's fighting strength. Military censorship promptly was clamped down on it, but the transcript showed Collins wound up by saying he was satisfied that U. S. forces in Korea

REGISTRATION AT N. L. S. C. SLATED

Enrollment For Summer Term At Local College Will Be Held June 8 And 9

Enrollment for the nine - week summer term at Northeast Louisiana State College will open Friday, June 8 and close the following day, announced B. S. Hamner, registrar.

Regular classes are scheduled to start Monday, June 11 and end August 11.

Students are eligible to register for ten semester hours of credit. The summer school matriculation fee is $9 for Louisiana residents and $50 for out-of - state persons.

Students entering Northeastern for the first time, whether they are beginners or transfers from other colleges, are asked to bring their transcripts of credits. Veterans should have certificates of eligibility at the time they enroll, Hamner said.

Summer term curricula are designed to provide a full schedule for students, including those graduating from high school this spring.

The schedule includes a variety of classes for junior classmen, with the expansion of the college to the four-year status.

Special emphasis is being given to courses that will be practical for teachers who are interested in working toward a bachelor's degree or furthering their knowledge in a special field of work, President Lewis C. Slater said.

BOARD VOTES TO CONTEST LAWSUIT

Charge That Negro Schools In Ouachita Not Adequate Will Be Fought

Baton Rouge, La., May 26.—(AP)— Louisiana's board of education voted today to fight a lawsuit which charges Negro school children have inadequate facilities in Ouachita parish.

Mack Avants, Ouachita parish superintendent of schools, said last night that he would go to Baton Rouge Monday to confer with the attorney general in connection with the suit.

Arrangements will be made at that time for a trial if it becomes necessary, he asserted.

Contacted last night at his home in Bastrop, George Madison, state board chairman, said he and other defendants would "actively defend" themselves in answer to the charges brought by the Negroes.

Madison pointed out that the trial would depend on the federal court docket. He said that it was a carry - over from an old suit.

Judge Ben Dawkins had ruled then that the plaintiffs must enjoin the state superintendent and state board.

The suit, filed by 23 Negro children through their fathers, names as defendants the state and parish school boards, parish superintendent Mack Avants, State Superintendent S. M. Jackson and State Board Chairman George Madison of Bastrop.

It was brought April 4 in federal district court at Monroe, with A.P. Tureaud of New Orleans as attorney.

The complainants contend Negro school children in Ouachita parish are discriminated against in violation of the federal and state constitutions and laws. School buildings, curricula and transportation

CLAIM GOOD CASE IN GIRL'S DEATH

Investigators Tie Up Loose Ends In Slaying Of 10-Year-Old Calif. Girl

Santa Ana, Calif., May 26.—(AP)—Investigators tied up loose ends today in what they call a positive case against Henry Ford McCracken, cowboy - style guitarist under indictment for the brutal murder of a 10 - year - old girl.

Sheriff's Detective Sgt. Boyd Sturgis, one of the principal investigators, said it was not necessary to use all available evidence in the presentation yesterday to the grand jury which voted murder, kidnaping and child stealing indictments against McCracken, 34, previously convicted sex offender. McCracken's arraignment was continued to June 8, when he will enter a plea.

His attorney, George Chula, said a plea of insanity is "an obvious possibility." Conviction for first degree murder could mean the death penalty; for kidnaping, 25 years; for child stealing, 20 years.

175,000 College Students Take Keep-Studying - Or - Start - Soldiering Tests

New York, May 26.—(AP)—Approximately 175,000 college students today took their keep-studying-or-start-soldiering test.

"It was a cinch," said Richard Wald, a 21-year-old Columbia University junior. His view was echoed by many others.

How high a student scores on the test can determine whether he stays in college or gets drafted.

The examination, first of its kind and the largest mass quizzing ever held in this country, took place at more than 1,000 centers—mostly college classrooms — across the country.

The students had three hours to answer the 150 questions, most of them multiple - choice dealing with such subjects as vocabulary and mathematics.

It was a generally serious and anxious throng that flocked to the testing places in most areas. But many were optimistic as they emerged at the end of the session.

"I thought it was easy," said John Kramer, 20, of Montclair, N.J.

"Easier than the college entrance exams," said a Waterville, Me., student, who wouldn't give his name.

Col. Candle Cobb, New York director of selective service, said after a visit to an examination center:

"All of the boys apparently felt that the examination was fair."

Some, however, said they didn't get through the test before the final whistle.

"There just wasn't enough time," said Bernard Levine, 20, a City College of New York sophomore.

Throughout the test, proctors stood by to prevent cribbing.

Some schools set aside up to 60 classrooms for the tests.

The examination, forerunner of similar mass quizzes to be held for other students June 16, June 30 and July 13, will be used along with college grades by local draft boards as a guide to determine scholastic deferments.

O. P. H. S. BANQUET IS SET FOR MAY 31

Will Be Important Event For All Alumni; Gilbert Faulk Toastmaster

Final plans have now been worked out for the Ouachita Parish High School alumni association's spring banquet, which is to take place on the Hotel Frances roof Thursday, May 31, at 8:00 p.m.

Mrs. O. J. Parker, program chairman, promises a most interesting evening, with alumnus Gilbert Faulk serving as toastmaster for the occasion. After the invocation by Jimmy Ferguson, a member of this year's graduating class, a welcome to the class of 1951 will be extendd by Bailey Grant, a 1935 graduate and president of the alumni association. Tommy Trawick, representing the class of 1951, will give the response.

Several musical selections will be offered by alumni vocalists Gladys Hughes Ford, Kate Penuell DeCuir, Russell Ray and Chester DeCuir. The entire assemblage, led by this year's senior class, will join in the singing of the Alma Mater, which was composed by Jane Wallace, a 1950 graduate. Accompanists for the musical numbers will be Willie Mae Wafer, alumna, and Bonnie Pettit, 1951 graduate. Other program highlights include an interpretive reading by Sue Hunt, who graduated with the class of 1946 and who is well-known in local dramatic circles, and claiming prominence among the evening's events will be the annual election of officers. Dinner music will be provided throughout the evening by the Monroe string ensemble, under the direction of alumna Helen Agnew.

The planning committee urges all graduates and former students who attended O. P. H. S. for as long as two years, as well as their wives and husbands, to make plans to attend the spring banquet, and the committee reminds all alumni that the dinner meeting is to be informal and is to feature turkey, apple pie and other delicacies in addition to a most entertaining program.

Tickets may still be obtained, it was announced by the committee, at several business places in Monroe and West Monroe and at the office in the Ouachita Parish High School building on South Grand street. Anyone desiring further information concerning banquet plans or tickets may telephone the Ouachita Parish High School office, it was stated.

Junior-Senior Prom Scheduled

Members of the junior class of Ouachita Parish High School are sponsoring a Junior-Senior prom, June 1, at the Selman Field Optimist Club.

The students are giving the dance without the support of the school. This is the second time a junior class has done this at Ouachita and since the dance was a big success last year they decided to make it an annual affair.

The students are raising funds for the dance by selling tickets for seventy-five cents (75 cents) a couple or stag.

Ben Burton and his orchestra promise to put those attending in a delightful dancing mood and Mary Lou Young's School of Dance will entertain during intermission.

The students wished to highlight the end of the school year by giving the seniors a prom so they decided to get together and make this the best dance any group has ever given.

Alumni and visitors are cordially invited to join the students for a pleasant night of dancing on June 1st!

For the first time in Miss Louisiana history identical twins will compete for the title of "Miss Louisiana" at Lake Providence, June 2nd and 3rd. Jayne and Anne Hills will represent Ruston in the forthcoming events as a dual entry. Only once before have twins competed in Miss America pageants, but not as a team, one was named Miss Tennessee and the other Miss Chattanooga.

Jayne and Anne will be judged both as a team and separately, and should they win as a team would be eligible to compete at Atlantic City, together, as the Misses Louisiana for the title of Miss America.

These girls have won acclaim in many fields of beauty and talent. Anne is the reigning Miss Lions International. They have been sweethearts of various branches of the armed forces and organizations throughout the southland. They graduate from Louisiana Tech, this year as music and drama majors.

Possessed with many talents, the Hills twins have studied dancing since they were three years of age, they are accomplished musicians being able to play practically every known musical instrument. Having starred in many operas and operaettas they both sing everything from boogie-woogie to operatic arias. Very capable actresses, they not only do serious drama but are very clever comedians.

Anne will sing "Mimi", from La Boheme and Jayne will sing "Sequidilla" from Carmen and will accompany each other on the piano. They will then do a comedy routine.

The twins are 22 years of age and are 5-4½ in. in height. Anne weights 120 lbs. with 36 bust, 25 waist and 37 hits. Jayne weighs 115 lbs with 33 bust, 23 waist and 34 hips.

The lieutenant received the Air Medal for flying combat missions at extremely low altitudes in the face of heavy enemy antiaircraft fire and in all kinds of weather conditions.

YOUTH MEETING INSPIRATIONAL

For the purpose of endeavoring to upbuild the morale of the youth of the community, Thursday night prayer meetings are being sponsored by the Church of God, West Monroe. One held the past Thursday night was typical. It was in the home of Mrs. Clara Springfield, of the Good Hope community. A large number of young men and women attended and the outcome was inspiring and, declared those who participated, was calculated to aid youth in choosing a right way of life. Similar services are scheduled each Thursday night.

Young Americans Club Celebrates

The Joy Drive-In Theatre was the scene of Foremost Dairies First Birthday Picnic.

Four Monroe city bus loads of happy, smiling, singing members of the Young American's Club enjoyed the outing. Foremost Dairies provided games, prizes, food, soft drinks and plenty of Foremost Ice Cream and delicious Foremost milk.

One year ago today, Mayor John Coon welcomed the children to the first meeting of the club. This nationally known program is an audience participation one, and in Monroe the area the club boasts of 500 registered members.

Each week, an orchid is given to the Mother of the child who writes the best letter on; "Why My Mother is the Best." All the "Orchid Mothers," of the past year were invited to the Birthday celebration.

Chet Marechal, manager of the Foremost Dairies Plant here, is highly pleased with the Monroe club.

OUTLINE VARIETY SHOW PROPOSED

Will Be Held As Benefit In Gentry Arena; Pythians Sponsors

Stonewall Lodge No. 8, Knights of Pythias, was host to the affiliated orders in an open meeting Thursday night. A gratifying representation of the membership of the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, Nomads of Avaraduka, and Pythian Sisters Temples No. 1 and No. 3, gathered at Castle Hall, together with the Pythians, for an entertainment program which spotlighted member talent.

Chancellor Commander Ray Magruder delivered a short address of welcome to the visiting orders. He introduced Master of Ceremonies Ted Van Landingham, who led in a full evening of colorful and delightful entertainment. The Nomads presented a flag drill characterized by precision of action, denoting careful preparation. The Pythian Sisters executed a fancy drill exhibition of intricacy and color. Mrs. Dean Selig was pianist for these two enjoyable features.

One of the highlights of the evening's program was the charming and masterful presentation of a series of piano solos by Mrs. Eugenia Oliver, whose skill and versatility added much to the occasion.

Chancellor Commander Magruder introduced the officers of the various orders to the assemblage. He spoke at length about the project which the Knights have undertaken in giving an annual picnic for the underprivileged children of the Twin Cities and areas of Ouachita parish adjacent to the Twin Cities, pointing out that this was a most worthy project and deserving of support.

Grand Chancellor Almond of Minden was present in an unofficial capacity and was recognized. Tex Dudley of Dallas, Tex., director of the variety show to be presented at Gentry's Arena on June 9 under the sponsorship of the Knights of Pythias, titled "Stars For You," was asked to discuss the show for the benefit of those present. He complimented the Knights on their civic-mindedness, stating he understood the reason hi show was brought to Monroe was in order to provide a different sort of entertainment and to raise funds for the picnic at which less fortunate children would be guest of the Lodge.

OUR STREETS

Monroe's streets, broken open on numerous occasions by construction crews during the last two years, have reached a condition which seems to necessitate immediate repairs if they are to be saved from complete deterioration.

On the whole, citizens of Monroe have taken this general impaired condition philosophically, regarding it as a necessary inconvenience arising from extensive installations of underground telephone, power and sewer facilities. They have been patient and complaints have been relatively few, except for minor grumblings, as automobiles passed over exceptionally rough spots.

Now, however, citizens are beginning to wonder how long this situation will continue, as construction work on many of the streets has been completed for months and little improvement in the streets has been made. Because the streets have not been restored to their original condition after completion of the work, general deterioration has set in on many of them.

In addition to the cracked streets, there are a good many blacktopped or asphalted streets that have not been maintained and are in bad condition.

While it would not take such a large amount of money to keep these streets in good condition, it will take huge sums to repair them if they are allowed to go to pieces—and this has aroused fear on the part of some citizens that the city may call for another big bond issue for street repairs.

Areas that appear to have suffered most in this deterioration include streets running east and west immediately south of DeSiard street, such as Harrison, Grammont, Wood and Oak, and a number of streets in the northern and northeastern edge of the city, such as Eighteenth street, Forsythe avenue, some spots on Park avenue, and Pargoud boulevard.

Because of unrepaired portions or only partly repaired portions, traffic on the east-and-west streets south of DeSiard is seriously handicapped, as cars have difficulty in passing each other without getting out into the broken areas. Without too much expense, these broken spots could be filled in with concrete and topped with asphalt, thus returning the streets to a smooth condition, but if they are neglected too long, it may be necessary to re-pave them completely, entailing a huge outlay of money.

Eighteenth street, which at one time was blacktopped from Forsythe to Louisville, has deteriorated badly and in some places has practically returned to the status of a gravel round, since gravel has been used to fill in some of the rough spots. Eighteenth street should be converted into a good street all the way from Forsythe to DeSiard, as it is a main thoroughfare.

Both sides of Pargoud boulevard have been cracked open for construction work and have not been adequately repaired. Island drive also is in bad shape and so is Riverside. With all these main channels of traffic from the north side in poor condition, it is practically impossible for people in that area to find a suitable street on which they can drive to the downtown area.

It has been pointed out that about half the voters of Monroe live on the north side and that many of the larger tax payers live in that area and they are asking for consideration in the matter of adequately maintained streets. Citizens of Monroe as a whole want streets maintained and many have expressed the view that it is cheaper to keep them in good repair than to rebuild them.

Fair Trade Acts Hit

Unless a retailer has signed a contract to sell goods obtained through interstate trade channels at prices fixed by the producer or distributor, he is free to resell at whatever prices he chooses, despite state laws to the contrary. This, in substance, is the 6 to 3 decision by the supreme court of the United States in a case attacking Louisiana's fair trade act. The finding extends to similar laws in 44 other states.

These laws, besides authorizing contracts for the sale or resale of trademarked commodities at prices stipulated by vendors, have a so-called nonsigner's provision. It provides that any retailer who sells any commodity at "less than the stipulated price in any contract," even though he is not a party to the contract, is guilty of unfair practice.

Manufacturers have taken full advantage of this provision to force fixed prices upon all retailers of a state, though they may have had contracts with comparative few retailers. The plan was originally aimed at cut rate drug stores to stop them from selling trademarked compounds as loss leaders.

Since extended to many other products, lower courts have sustained the practice, holding it valid under a 1939 amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law. Yet the amendment clearly legalizes the prescribing of minimum prices only under contracts which are lawful in intrastate commerce.

As to the puzzling construction by the lower courts, imposing price maintenance upon unwilling noncontractural parties, the majority opinion by Justice Jackson tartly commented:

"When we read what the sponsors wrote and said about the amendment we cannot find that the distributors were to have the right to use not only a contract to fix retail prices, but a club as well."

Many retailers have felt that way about the matter, and consumers have not been convinced that they benefited from the price-fixing pattern first evolved in California. Justice Frankfurter's dissenting opinion conceded that fair trade laws "may be unsound as a matter of economics."

Slogans

None who has read the works of Lenin or studied the official histories of the rise to dominance of Stalin can fail to be impressed by the importance of slogans to the Communist technique. Some of Lenin's slogans, which are cited as products of brilliant inspiration, seem obvious and trite to non-Communists.

For example, Lenin's most famous slogan was "All power to the Soviets." This was almost his first utterance on returning to Russia from Switzerland after the overthrow of the czar in 1917. The outside world cannot, therefore, afford to dismiss Communist slogans as of no consequence.

That, at all events, is the opinion of observers at Belgrade, who have been examining the May Day slogans of the Communist parties of the Soviet Union and Red China. The Yugoslavian government is Communist but anti-Russian.

Comparison of the May Day slogans, it is asserted, shows a progressive growth of antagonism and a conflict of interest between Moscow and Peiping on the future control of Asia. Peiping issued its slogans six days before Moscow, and none of them mentioned Stalin. Asia was mentioned 18 times at Peiping, while Moscow's slogans mentioned Asia but thrice.

Perhaps it isn't much to go on, but in an intelligence field so difficult to penetrate, the free countris must grasp at hints. The best informed opinion holds that the partnership between the Soviet Union and Red China is bound to run into conflicts. What slogans seem to reveal could be a straw in the Far Eastern wind.

No Wheat Shortage

If there were a real wheat crop scare, the price of the cereal would be spiraling upward. But both government and private estimates indicate there will be a winter wheat harvest of approximately 700,000,000 bushels. The heaviest of spring wheat is estimated to total 300,000,000 bushels.

Add to that the expected carryover of 425,000,000 bushels, and approximately 1,425,000 bushels of wheat will be available until the 1952 harvest. The carryover next spring is expected to be approximately 400,000,000 bushels.

It is apparent that no wheat shortage will rear its ugly head this year. To create a shortage of wheat would require a succession of drouth years such as those of the mid-thirties. Even then wheat crops were larger than needed and huge surpluses piled up which were only reduced during the war years.

The fact that the United States will have a large wheat surplus after this year's highly advertised crop "failure" is a demonstration of the strength the nation is accumulating for any international crisis.

THESE DAYS

1934 TO 1927

Many are the temptations for a columnist to leave the Macrthur investigation and to turn to pleasanter subjects. Yet, I am impelled to turn to eorge Marshall's testimony that he had served in China from 1924 to 1927. Senator Alexander Smith, who was interrogating General Marshall, let is pass as a routine matter, which surprised me as the New Jersey senator is a bright citizen.

Those years were the most crucial in modern Chinese history. Surely no one could have lived through Russia's experiment with the conquest of a country by its own citizens, which occurred in China between 1924 and 1927, without learning something.

It was on July 7, 1924, that L. Karakhan, the Russian extraordinary plenipotentiary to China, in a speech at the Peking National University, announced:

"We have driven imperialism out of our country, but only then shall we be satisfied when there will not be a single oppressed nation in the world. When you will be strong enough to start the battle against the imperialism which is oppressing your country, you may be assured of the sympathies with your cause of the people of the union."

Michael Borodin arrived in Canton late in 1923, ostensibly as an adviser to Sun Yat - Sen, but actually as the agent of the third international, with a corps of advisers and General Galesn - Bluecher, to use China as a springboard for the world revolution.

Borodin accomplished in 1924 what Marshall failed to accomplish in 1946, namely, the union of the Nationalists and Communists. I quote from my book (now out of print) "The Tinder Box of Asia":

"Dr. Sun and Borodin settled the policy of the Kuomintang on the basis of a threefold thesis: 1. Cooperation between the Kuomintang and the Chinese Communist party 2. cooperation between Nationalist China and Soviet Russia ;3. support of the labourers and peasants movement. Dr. Sun agreed that members of the Chinese Communist party could become members of the Kuomintang as individuals. Thus the ranks of the Kuomintang were swelled by a new membership, which numerically was larger than the former non -Communistic membership . . ."

In January, 1924 the First Party Congress was called at Canton and the leaders were instructed in Soviet methods. The Nationalist government was reorganized on the Russian model. Michael Borodin was made high adviser to the central executive committee of the Kuomintang, which controlled both the government and the party. In fact, for three years, he ruled a large part of China. General Marshall was in China during those three years.

Dr. Sun died on March 12, 1925. Borodin selected Chiang Kai-Shek to seize power because he had studied, in Russia, in the Red army schools.

On May 30, 1925, a strike started in Shanghai over the shooting of a Chinese laborer in a Japanese mill be the British police. This sparked a nationwide general strike, with bloody riots and a vast anti - British boycott. This rioting was so fierce that it reached every city, including Tientsin, where General Marshall was. In fact it was a Communist method to disorganize the country so that a revolution would be inevitable. It produced a Russian - fomented-and - directed civil war in China.

The British, French, Italians and Americans sent additional troops, in fairly large numbers, to protect their nationals. As a matter o fact, a regiment of marines under General Smedley Butler was sent to China to protect us. General Marshall ought to recall that. I was a witness to all of it; General Marshall witnessed it in Tientsin and Peking.

Borodin, Bluecher, and Chiang Kai - Shek conquered all of southern China and when Chiang quarrelled with the Russians during Christmas week of 1926, Borodin attempted to depose Chiang and actually take over. When Chiang established the Nanking government, he expelled Borodin and the Russian advisers and many Chinese Communists were killed. It is estimated that in Shanghai alone, 150,000 of them were killed.

In 1932, I wrote:

" . . . In China a change can only come about by revolution. A revolution can be more effectively worked by the Chinese Communist party than by any other element in the country. My experience in Russia during the Communist revolution confirms the opinion that such a revolution can only succeed if any important units of the army are willng to join the Communists. In present circumstances in China it is possible to believe that a large section of the army will go over if the Communists win a decisive victory."

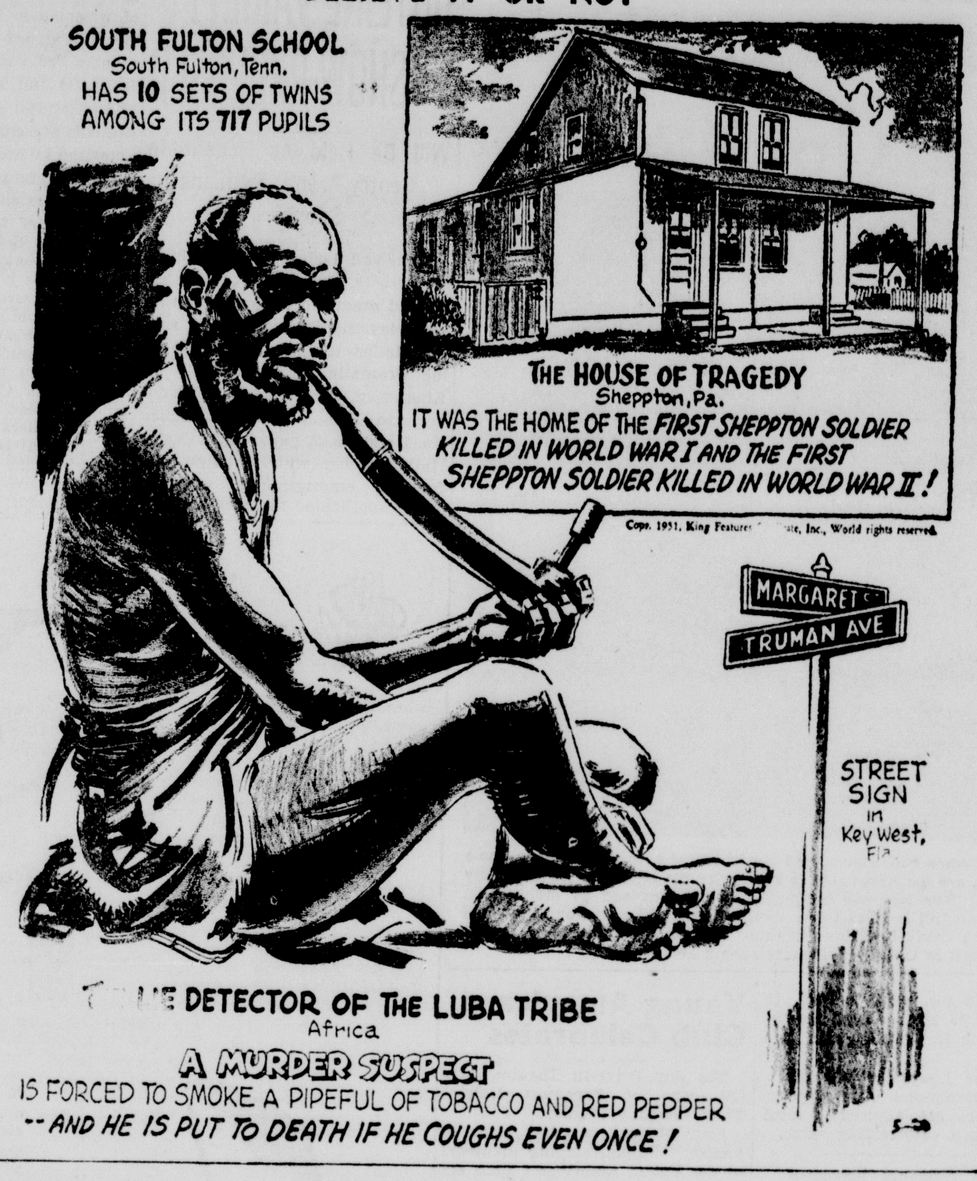

General Marshall witnessed these events. I wonder whether he reached any conclusions then to guide him now.

BIBLE THOUGHTS:

In that I command thee this day to love the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.—Deut. 30:16.

We are ashamed of our fear; for we know that a righteous man would not suspect danger nor incur any. Wherever a man feels fear, there is an avenger.—Thoreau.

BASCOM TIMMONS

The shouts for impeachment of Preside- Truman which followed his dismissal of General MacArthur have faded to a murmur, but an apparently determined group of 43 freshmen Republican House members (impeachment charges must originate in the House) are now demanding impeachment action against Secretary of State Acheson, which they can originate themselves if they are not deterred by older heads in their party.

The word "impeachment" has an ominous sound in these disturbed days, but any member of the House can impeach a cabinet officer, a federal judge or any other responsible official of the legislative or executive branches. All he has to do is rise and present a resolution of impeachment, which is then referred to the house judiciary committee for study.

If the Judiciary committee decides the resolution should be considered by the House, it reports the measure, with supporting charges and a vote is had. And if the resolution carries, the Senate must constitute itself a court of impeachment and try the man.

The last motion to impeach a cabinet officer was made against Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon in 1926 by Rep. Louis T. McFadden (Rep.-Pa.), a member of the House Banking and Currency committee and a "soft money" advocate who disagreed with the secretary's "hard money" policy. The resolution died in the house judiciary committee where it was considered only briefly.

The drive against Acheson has more substance. It represents the determination of the freshman Republicans to disregard tradition and do by direction what they are now convinced cannot be done by indirection—that is, to persuade President Truman that Acheson's usefulness in his present office is permanently at an end, no matter how much the president may like and admire him.

It is not necessary to recite the reasons pro and con for firing Acheson, for they are pretty well understood from coast to coast and some state legislature, including Texas, have already passed resolutions urging that the Secretary be ousted.

His impeachment, however, is somethin else again—over a slow and encumbered procedural route that has not varied since the Constitution was written. No Secretary of State has ever been impeached, and no President has ever been found guilty of impeachment charges, though President Andrew Johnson came within one vote. Acheson, if the House should vote his impeachment, would be up against an unlucky number—he would be the 13th official of the government to be accused and tried since Congress began operations in 1789.

But before that vote, there would be hearings before the House Judiciary committee headed by Rep. Emmanuel Celler (Dem.-N. Y.), a strong Administration supporter. If the resolution were forced from the committee by petition—and it might be, in the present state of opinion, it would require a majority vote for passage, which means the solid Republican minority plus at least 17 Democrats.

In the Senate, a two thirds majority to convict is required. There the presiding officer would be Vice President Alben W. Barkley, and the trial might drag on for weeks, with legislative business being transacted at intervals. To convict, with the present close division of parties, would require all the 46 Republicans and at least 17 Democrats.

The Senate has met as a court of impeachment 12 times but only four times have they found the defendant guilty and removed him from office. Next to President Johnson, the most important political figure to face the Senate as a court of impeachment was William W. Belknap, President Grant's Secretary of War, accused of army contract frauds and other short comings who was acquitted.

William Blount, a Senator from Tennessee, was tried in 1789, but acquitted for lack of jurisdiction.

It was then determined that the Senate should proceed against any of its own members by disqualifications proceeding rather than impeachment. The other nine who stood trial were all members of the federal judiciary, including Samuel Chase, an Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, who was acquitted after a trial lasting four months.

The last two impeachment trials have been brief, one lasting nine and the other eleven days, but they can scarcely be compared in scope with the presentation of case of impeachment against a cabinet officer.

DOWN SOUTH

"WITH WHAT MEASURE YE METE"

It is undoubtedly true that those within the Socialist party of Great Britain who profess the Christian faith are well aware of the pitfalls that await the unwary who desert the moral law. These individuals will understand, therefore, why the Socialist government is today suffering the tribulations of the transgressor. The words in the gospel according to St. Matthew, "With what measure yet mete, it shall be measured to you again," will no doubt occur to them.

In the name of nationalization — coal mines, railroads, utilities, steel mills—the Socialist party has been robbing the more provident members of the community. Now, as the result of the Iranian parliament following this example, the whole community, Conservative and Socialist alike, is liable to become the victim of an equally criminal act of folly in the confiscation of the property of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, in which the British government owns the majority of the shares.

The great oil installations of the company do not belong to the Iranian people nor to the Iranian government. The claim to confiscate them is based on no moral doctrine. As far as the oil itself is concerned, a lease most beneficial to the Iranian people has been granted to the company by the Iranian government and has forty-two years yet to run.

Yet a group of state worshippers in the Iranian parliament has calmly decided to seize the company's property and compensate the owners with Iranian paper dinars.

Surely, even to the most blinded Socialist disciple, the proposal of the Iranian parliament must appear in its true light of a thinly disguised plot to rob honest men. Envy, malice and class hatred cannot here serve the Socialist to disguise the real nature of this proposed nationalization.

But let us ask ourselves this question, fundamentally, is there any moral difference in this criminal proposal to plunder an oil company from the plunder of the trucking business, for instance, which, under socialism, has already taken place in Great Britain?

Surely, in Iran, the British Socialists are only receiving the measure meted out by themselves!

And let's remember, too, that

New York Day By Day

New York — Songbird Nan Wynn's current court action to recover a $3000 loan from her estranged husband, Dr. Tom Bayleck (who allegedly pleaded poverty while secretly a millionaire and bought a Cadillac with the record - and - moive beauty's funds), is only one of four suits on the way. If separation and divorce suits are contested, the case will be more sensational than "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." . . . Nelson F. Stamler, gambling-investigating deputy attorney general of New Jersey, figures he's one of few men in a position to cost "his" bookie a lot of money this racing season. Six months ago, when he raided Leo (J. W. Donaldson) Link's bet chamber, Stamler also grabbed $127,000 in small bills that he legally sealed in safe deposit boxes as evidence for trial. Estimates he has cost Link possibly $4200 worth of interest on same to date. . . .Television's Dennis (Demi Sposa) James, whose wife's suit for divorce in Jersey was thrown out on technical grounds, may get the same reversal. Mrs. Sposa's defense maneuver escaped press notice this week due to use of his unprofessional name. She claims her mate resides in New York and has no right to sue on that side of the Hudson.

Baby Talk — Last month my secretary Gloria Brown, who took leave for her first heiring, worried that it might arrive during the MacArthur parade traffic jam. Nothing happened. Thereafter her husband, mother and mother-in-law stood emergency watches nightly. One 3 a.m. this week, while the entire family dozed, Gloria quietly packed a bag without disturbing them. A few hours later she phoned from Le Roy hospital and proudly announced: "It's a girl."

Hammered Out — Gotham's "going-going" addicts looked "real gone" in this week's auction of the extinct Ritz-Carlton hotel effects . . Pre-sale estimates of professionals who examined and placed "sure-buy" bids for items they wanted, were blown out the window by inflated purchases of sentimental amateurs. . . .The nostalgic standing-room-only phenomenon boomed 35 per cent above wildest anticipated sales. . . .One bidder paid $100 each for a routine set of twin-bed frames. . . .A representative of the Astor estate stood by at all times to see that ordinary souvenir —treasuring folks got preference over dealers. . . .Heaviest single collector yesterday was proprietor of the Boston Ritz, which has no connection. However, he should now be able to point anywhere in his Beantown hotel and say: "That is from the old Ritz.". . . .A fussy dowager, who had trouble finding elbow room and demanded seating that wasn't available, gave me a ripple when she slumed at a harried auctioneer's helper from O'Reilly's Plaza Art Galleries. Shaking her bonnet, she complained: "I've been coming to the Ritz for years and was always treated wonderfully by its former management. But now that the Irish have bought it, this place is run like a chowder and beer jamboree."

$64 Questions — Mrs. Gardiner Conroy, wife of the famed attorney who commanded the "fighting 69th" and was killed in action on Makin Is., recalled my prewar Kerry Blue terrier "Barney." Mrs. Conroy teased: "This snooty American Kennel Club won't like this, but a mongrel pet is the only breed that lasts." Then she skipped through a half-century of fickle dog-fancying: pug-dogs, pre-WW-I dachshunds, Airedales, Pekinese, French bulls, wire-haired terriers, black Scotties, blond spaniels, boxers.

"Today's big city vogue is obviously toy poodles," she declared. "But what happens to all those wire-haireds and Scotties so popular when Fala roamed the White House? Do they pass out of style and existence like Eugenie hats? Or are they shipped to Cuba like Manhattan's old-shape taxi cabs?"

White House aides' garden party was knitted with so many tense secret servicemen guarding President Truman, that when Washington glamordoll Nina Rownd made a fast move to open her coat, one agent exclaimed: "For heaven's sake, don't do that." Then he pointed to exterior guards on neighboring rooftops armed with rifles. . . .Reminded her of another Capitol jig, during which the ailing step-grandpa, Republican Sen. Allen White of Maine, reached for his handkerchief and was promptly challenged by a Truran bodyguard: "Do you mind if I check the contents of your hip pocket?" And he did. .. .Barbara Barb, the post-deb N. Y. barrister, who gushed when she met Sweden's tall, distinguished air attache, Baron Herbet de Schinke, later asked her aide-escort: "Is the Baron handsome? Forward Pass — To Robert Vogeler: Prime Minister Otto Grotewahl, of Germany's eastern zone, has been ordered to Budapest "for a rest." Maybe he's been overworked — but comrades fear he's been under-Sovietized.

Travel Notes—Shirley Carmel, the Florida heiress flew to New York to keep "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn's" Johnny Johnston from getting homesick due to MGM's new come-hither buildups for his ex-wife Kathryn Grayson. . . . . Shakespearian Maurice Evans is heading the other way—to Florida with plans for a movie there. . . . Abe Attel, of fistic fame, is due in a hospital for a checkup. . .. ## Our Children

RAPHAEL'S NOSE

Two small boys were rolling over each other, getting in a punch now and then that landed far short of its objective, when the principal strolled through the yard. "What's this all about? He demanded.

The knot untangled and two very dirty small boys faced the principal. "He wouldn't let me get a drink. Shoved me away and took one himself," said the smaller and lighter of the two.

"You run upstairs to the washroom and make yourself presentable," said the principal, "and you come along with me, Raphael, and wash yourself in my washroom. You can't possibly go to a classroom looking like that and the bells will ring soon. Come along."

Raphael was very dirty. His sweater had gathered a day's dirt and his face matched it. Worst of all was his nose, which was stopped when it was not running so he had difficulty in speaking clearly between sniffs. When he was washed, brushed and cleaned as far as possible the principal said, "Why don't you attend to your nose, Raphael? What did it ever do to you to earn such bad treatment?" Raphael looked surprised and sniffed again.

"Here. You go back into the washroom, clean your nose. Then come back here. I want to tell you something."

Raphael did what he could, being rather out of practice, and the principal took a hand and finished the job with the aid of a handful of tissues and some ointment. Then he invited Raphael to be seated and treated him to a lecture on the need for clean noses and the service they render the human body, to all of which Raphael listened with silent and outward respect. Then he went to his classroom.

Thirty years afterward the principal had a letter from a distant part of the country. From Raphael. He wrote on stationery that bore the address of a physician's office, his own, to ask if the principal remembered the day he talked to him about his useful nose, and to tell him that from that day forward he had taken a keen interest in his own nose and those of many other people. He was now a nose and throat specialist with a large practice and he wanted to let the old teacher know how much his attention to him that long-ago day had meant.

Many an unpromising child is gathering the experiences that will in time, allow him to grow into a useful, successful personality. Children are potential men and women. Nobody knows what a word spoken in season, an understanding gesture, a helpful hint, will do toward opening a door to rich experiences, undreamed - of success. Teachers and parents should miss no opportunity to sow the seed of a fine maturity.

A trying time for mother is when Junior wants to touch everything he sees. If you have a "touching" child, Dr. Patri's leaflet, "Touching Things," will prove of benefit. To obtain a copy send 10 cents to him, care of this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N.Y.

Naval School of Music
Washington 25, D. C.
May 23, 1951.

Monroe Morning World
Monroe, La.

To the people of the Twin Cities:

I am just a homesick, music-loving sailor from West Monroe that is always thinking of home and music. Consequently, I often wonder why the people at home don't have a Twin Cities municipal band. It can easily be afforded since there are so many capable young musicians in the fine Ouachita parish and Neville High School bands.

A municipal band would offer a wonderful opportunity to keep the technique of these school musicians from becoming "rusty" throughout the summer months. It wouldn't have to be limited to the high schools, either. Some of the students of N. L. S. C. would probably appreciate the opportunity to play with such a group. And, too, there are older musicians that would appreciate an excuse to get behind their horns once again.

The band could provide open-air programs on Sunday afternoons in one of the two parks.

I hope that these suggestions will get a little consideration from the citizens of the Twin Cities and that something will be done about this right away.

Appearing in municipal court yesterday, Miss Shaefer was fined $10 and court costs on an assault and battery charge.

Here Comes the Showboat!

Towners are talking about the wizardy trouping in the "Stalag 17" show. No big names. Only big talent. . . . The Turtle Award goes to the June issue of a movie mag which currently reviews "All About Eve." It merely won all the medals months ago. . . . Sunshine and Thunder Note: Critic Brooks Atkinson described the 1950-51 season as "continually interesting." But George Jeanius Nathan (who else?) rebuffed it as "d i s m a l." . . . Impossibility Item: Eloise (The Great Gabbo) McElhone of "Leave It to the Gels" and other programs saying: "I am too tired for words," . . . The most intelligent TV variety show, "Garroway at Large," is being yanked. Unable to draw much of an audience in alleged sophisticated N. Y. . . . O, You Hicks! . . . Reporters who can't find Aly Khan apparently looked everywhere but the Hotel Warwick.

The nice part of the "Mr. and Mrs. North" whodunits via CBS is that they're never mysteryotyped. . . . A rare hayseed ditty that has the melodic charm of a geniune folk song is christened "Allentown Jail." Jo Stafford's platter is oof'ly purty. . . . The word-for-word description of the Rita-Aly marital bout in the gazettes is getting soooo yawny. . . . It's taboo in the films for a gel to put a strain on her sweater. But an upcoming movie titled "M" deals with a psychopathic killer who slays children. . . . Brooks Atkinson's atom-bomb on first-nighters in his book, "Once Around The Sun": "They bring nothing into the theatre except shallow, distracted minds and tired emotions. They are the unburied dead, brushed, combed, richly dressed and expensively embalmed." Fevvensakes!

"Love Is the Reason" is certain to be feeding the jukes all Summer. It's the swingy-thingy from "Tree Grows in Brooklyn." . . . Coast colyumists hail Ava Gardner's chanting in the soon due cinema, "Showboat." But one mag reports Ava's vocallure was dubbed by Lena Horne. We thawt it was dubbed by Frankeeeeee! . . . Money Berle's little known sideline: He's composed and co-auth'd over 100 songs. . . . Dorothy Kirsten's album of Jerome Kern beguilers is a must-get. The way she coos "All the Things You Are" toys with the heartstrings. . . . The gabber on Channel 9 is a brute. He disillusions The Lollipop Set by informing them that the fights in Westerns are faked and that the baddies are really goodies in private life. Hisssssssssss!

We refuse to give any of our shoulders (to cry on) to any $2,500 per week Follywoodite who confesses in a mag piece that he was a chump for joining the Reds. That they are chumps is a scoop? . . . Tomorrow's event at Harrison, N. Y. (for the Runyon Fund) is The Adjacent Hunts Meet at the Blind Brook Turf and Polo Club. At Knollwood Country Club (Sunday, too) you will enjoy The Weathervane Golf tourney with all your pet gal stars, who make it an annual thing in their cancer fight. . . . The upcoming picture, "Ace in the Hole," skips the customary Gollywood version of a newspaperman. Instead of a blitz-talking scoop-happy hero — this reporter's a villun. . . . If that gal selling you neckwear in the Cardinal shop on B'way and 45th looks familiar, you're right. She's Fay Spain, teevy's new ingenue click, who still takes a turn with the cravats when things get dull in video.

Radio oracle B. Gross's expose: A survey disclosed that local families (with telesets for 2 years) showed a 47 per cent increase in nighttime radio listeners. . . . The Sabbath Times reported teevy has thefted 36 million listeners from radio. Mebbesowot? Your N. Y. Correspondent's Sunday-night audience (according to all surveys) hasn't varied in 2 years. (Finger-snap in face). . . . Saralu Harris, a North Carolina schoolmarm (13 months ago), will be featured thrush at La Vie En Rose starting June Six. Beautiful and talented. . . . Another newcomer named Norma Hilton gets a first break with her song, "My Life Began with You." It'll be ABC'd via "Dream Harbor" on the 31st.—10:45 to 11 p.m. Norma was recently Girl Friday at WQAM, Miami. . . . The celebs invited to The Washington Post's golf event will attend the National Press Club Dance next Friday eve. (But can Doris Fleeson rhumba?)

Josephine Baker, despite a transportation strike in Detroit recently, attracted a gross of $60,000 in 9 days. . . . Hilda Simms, who stole the honors in "Anna Lucasta," is the only American in Basil Dean's version of "Hassan," the classic prose play. You should see her London notices. All Valentines.

DOWN SOUTH

the British Socialists confiscated the trucks of honest Britons. How can they complain when half-starved Iranians confiscate the property of the British government? The Iranians at least confine their proposed depredations to the property of the foreigner. They also rob a rich government—not poor, struggling business men. So strictly speaking, we are not being quite fair to the Iranians in comparing them with British Socialist Those Socialists who have tied Christianity to the chariot wheel of socialism must approve this Iranian venture with all their heart as a very Christian proposal indeed—that, is, if they possess any coherent sequence in their ideas. One might even wonder why the British Socialist party has not risen as one man to acclaim the noble ideal behind the proposal of their comrades in Iran.

Can it be that when the shoe is on the other foot, and they are at the wrong end of an act of confiscation, the British Socialists and—denly lose their faith in Socialist doctrines that have for so long blinded them to morality? In its role of shareholder in the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, is the British government suddenly aware of fundamental truths on which it turned its back when it robbed the trucking business?

Positively, one begins to be sorry for these Iranians. They were only following Socialist doctrine to the letter. And here the Socialist comrades who, some six years ago, sang the "Red Flag" in the house of commons, sent them not blessing and approval—but battleships! Were men ever so badly betrayed by fellow-doctrinaires before? Who, in this wicked world, is an Iranian to trust?

And, if we get excited here in the United States about the loss of these oilfields to our British allies, let's not forget it was our loans and subsidies that largely made it possible for the Socialists to nationalize their own industries in the frst place. The penalty may be greater than we now imagine.

MODEL HOME IS PUT ON DISPLAY

Residence On Emerson Street Open For Public Inspection Today

The model home at 1001 Emerson will open its doors for inspection today, the first of many such planned and executied houses to be shown the public. Designed and contracted by Johnny Usrey and furnished by Carson Furniture Company, the displayed home's exterior combines a light gray asbestos siding with rich coral overhang. Of concrete base with asphalt tile flooring throughout, the interior continues the overall color scheme with a living and dining area and small hallway pastel gray, the marbelized asphalt tile of the same tone.

The bedrooms employ colors that lead from the hall, the master bedroom is a deep sea blue, the guest bedroom in a sea green. Both rooms have the modern double closets with sliding panels. The sea green from the gue t room comprises the wainscoating in the bath, with the rich exterior coral finishing the scheme.

From the other side of the dining area, the kitchen employs canary yellow, with the utility room adjoining it of the same hue. This utility room is equipped for deep freeze, washing machine, heater, etc. It is accessible from the car porte as well as the kitchen.

The furniture for the showing includes modern sectionals and odd pieces in the living room, fine modern mahogany with light green plastic-upholstered chairs in the dining area, and drapes with gray background and bright-colored figures representing the shades of the house, all by Lammet.

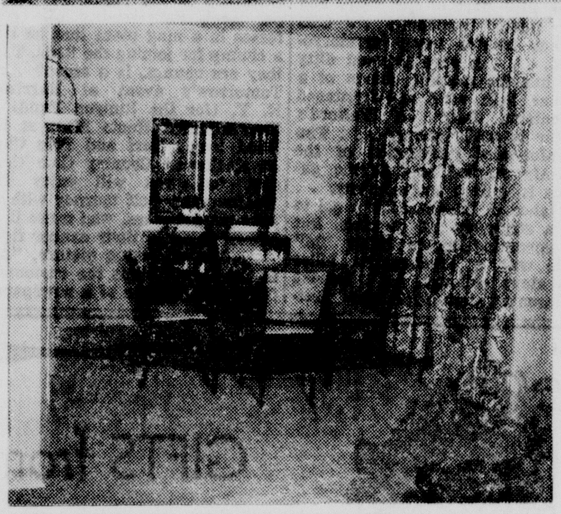

The bedrooms show lime oak gray with accessories in one room, modern blonde (with bookcase headboard) in the other. A Crosley refrigerator and American Beauty stove are in the kitchen.

Completely functional, with modern architectural lines, this model home is one of many which Usrey and Usrey will build. Already five such houses stand in the West Parkview addition and eight in the Northeast State College section. They are also committed to the F. H. A. for 26 additional structures. Carson Furniture Company, through their Lammet franchise, has studied the design and structural needs of the home completely in their enveloping furnishing of it.

The public is cordially invited to see the home from 2 to 6 p.m. today.

MODEL HOME OPEN TO PUBLIC

The new and modern model home shown above is open to the public today from 2:00 to 6:00 p. m., located at 1001 Emerson, a block from 1000 Park avenue. The home was built and designed by Usrey and Usrey and furnished by Carson Furniture Company, Lammert dealer. Shown to the left is the dining area. (Staff photos by Marvin DuBos.)

Jap Health Minister Arrives At New York

New York, May 25.—(AP)—Takeo Kurokawa, Japanese minister of health and welfare, arrived from London today, en route to Washington to express the gratitude of the Japanese to the United States for its assistance.

He said that as a result of American assistance, 25 per cent of the homes destroyed in Japan had been replaced. Asked for his reaction to Gen. Douglas MacArthur's removal, he said:

"Gen. MacArthur was with us for a long time. We had a respect and fondness for him and were sorry to see him go. We have also respect for Gen. Ridgway, but it is a little soon to have developed the same sort of fondness.

"Fundamentally, the feeling in Japan is that we have a fondness and respect for the United States. Anyone sent to us is more of a symbol. We accept the occupation policy as it is."

PELICAN BOYS' STATE PLANNED

American Legion In Fifth District Can Send 70 Boys

Once again the national department of the American Legion will sponsor nationwide Boy's State which has been so successful in the past.

In accordance with this program that is to be held nationally, the state department of the American Legion of Louisiana, will again arrange to entertain the young boys of this state at Louisiana State University campus, Baton Rouge, during the week of August 13 to August 21. At this time, all posts of the American Legion in the state will endeavor to see that their quota of boys allotted them will be sponsored and sent to Baton Rouge to attend this mythical 49th Boys' State.

As in the past, the objectives of this program will be to educate our youth in the duties and privileges and responsibilities of American citizenshp and to have an actual training in the practical mechanic of our government. This sole purpose is to enable the boy to grasp the meaning of some of th responsibilities which he will be called upon to assume when he becomes an adult.

The various boys will be selected from all over the state and their qualifications will be based upon, leadership, character, cooperativeness and scholarship. The age limit is 14 to 18 years old inclusive and the boys must have completed the junior classes in high school. The enrollment in this state is limited to 505 boys, the fifth district, of which we are a part, is entitled to send a quota of 70 boys.

Sam A. Orchard, who has again been appointed fifth district chairman this year, urges that all Legion posts in this district have their entries sent to the Louisiana state department at New Orleans at once. Arrangements are being made at this time to transport the boys from this district by bus, to Baton Rouge in ample time to arrive in Baton Rouge for registration, which will be on Monday, August 13th.

OIL EXECUTIVE HITS AT ANTI-TRUST SUIT

New Orleans, May 25.—(AP)—An oil industry executive says the government's anti - trust suit against Standard Oil Company of California is part of a plan to "eliminate the efficiency of integrated companies."

The executive, Standard of California President T. S. Petersen, spoke here last night at a meeting of employes of the company and three of its subsidiary firms—the California company, the California Oil Company and Ironite Chemical Company.

Petersen said the plan called for placing the companies under government regulation. He termed the dispute a "clash of ideologies."

He said, "there are other big business concerns who have been marked for destruction . . . because they dared to be efficient and successful and to grow big because consumers wanted to buy their products.

"You will remember the recent anti-trust case against the A. and P. stores, in which the government lawyers haled them into court because they were big enough to (sell) quality food at a low price."

Peterson denied west coast oil companies have agreements on marketing, refining, producing or transporting their products.

Painting containers of poisonous items red makes them easily distinguished.

NEGRO WOMAN'S BACK IS BROKEN

Leaps Twenty Feet In Ward's When Questioned About Shirts

A Negro woman, suspected of shop-lifting, suffered a broken back Saturday morning when she jumped from the business office of Montgomery Ward department store.

Ruby Lee Moore, 23, of 1404 DeSiard street, jumped after she had been taken to the office to be questioned concerning two shirts reported taken from a counter in the store.

Maurice Strong, manager of the department store, saw the woman take the two shirts and called it to the attention of Robert Raburn, merchandise manager. The two men proceded to the entrance of the building and stopped the woman.

"She then broke and ran and we chased the Negro woman into the alley," said the managers. The woman dropped the two shirts as she ran, they said.

"A telephone call, which occurred after the 23-year-old Negro was brought to the office for questioning, gave her the opportunity to step into a chair and then onto the rail, and fall approximately 20 feet onto the passage way of the first floor," stated Strong and Raburn.

The woman was taken to the Charity hospital by a Hixon Brothers ambulance.

SWIMMING WILL FEATURE CAMP

Aquatic Program To Be Major Part Of Camp Ki-Ro-Li Activities

When Camp Ki-Ro-Li, the Ouachita Valley Council's Boy Scout camp opens June 10, one of the main features of the adventurous program for those who attend will be swimming and other parts of the aquatics program.

Realizing that all boys love water (in its natural habitant), the council has made an all-out effort to give every Scout who attends camp a complete program of water activities. This will include swimming, lifesaving, canoeing, boating, and fishing.

William Earl Nolan, from Oak Ridge, La., will be the aquatic director at the camp for the full six weeks' camp session. Nolan, who is an Eagle Scout, has had a vast amount of experience in camp staff work and as a life guard. He presently is a student at Centenary College in Shreveport. Prior to camp opening, he will attend the National Boy Scout Aquatic School to be held at Tupelo, Miss. There he will receive special instructions to lead the program at Camp Ki-Ro-Li. Several experienced older Scouts his aquatic work at the camp. will be assigned to assist Nolan in Emphasis will be placed on making each Scout camper a swimmer. Scouts will be classified early in their first week as non-swimmers, beginners, and swimmers. Every boy will have two swim periods each day, and swimmers will have ample opportunity for lifesaving instructions.

Troop swims will also be held at various times during the day, and troop leaders will be instructed in the "Eight Defense Plan," which provides adequate protection for an individual troop swimming party. At camp the buddy-check system will be used and each swimmer can be accounted for at any time.

One of the highlights of the swimming program each year for the past few years has been a weekly water carnival. The events of this carnival are expected to be of unusual interest to all campers again this year.

A new feature which has been added to the program for advanced swimmers is canoeing. Facilities are now available at the camp for canoeing and this is expected to provide a great experience for many Scouts.

Camp Ki-Ro-Li opens June 10 and will run for six consecutive weeks. Troops come under their own leadership for a one-week period. Many troops have already made their reservations for one of the camp sessions.

In addition to the aquatics program, the following activities will be provided on the camp program: Scoutcraft, woodcraft, axemanship, nature, compass, mapping, judging, first aid, pioneering, hike craft, handicraft, tracking, stalking, archery, camp craft, outdoor cooking, fire building, knots and splicing, trail camps, orientation, marksmanship, and skeet shooting.

Raymon L. Owens, field Scout executive of Ruston, will be camp director at Ki-Ro-Li. He will be assisted by Gerry Harrigill, field Scout executive of Rayville, Leon Pratt of Bastrop, and William Earl Nolan of Oak Ridge. All of these men are graduates of the national Boy Scout camping school. A large group of well qualified senior Scouts is also being recruited to serve on the central camp staff. These Scouts will come from all districts of the Ouachita Valley Council.

John Pennington Develops Skill Of Neville Students

By Leon Marx

At a time when world conditions demand more and more basic skill on the part of many individuals to produce the tools of war, students at Neville High School are being given an opportunity for acquiring skills they never before had the opportunity to get.

John Pennington, a graduate of Louisiana State University in Industrial Arts and shop instructor at Neville, is the man who has developed these opportunities to the point they are available today to any student of the city high school.

Although he is finishing only his second year at Neville, one would think by the progress he has made that he had been here much longer.

The wood-work shop has taken on new lustre and meaning to the students. Where some shops and industrial art classes mean a chance to get away from academic subjects, Pennington has made it a chance for creative workmanship.

From an educational standpoint, industrial arts offer students an opportunity to "excel", while few other courses can offer the same opportunity. Educators stress the importance of success in the lives of students.

Some students are academically inclined; others are better qualified for manual arts.

Last year when Pennington began as full time shop teacher, he had much to do to expand facilities for an expanded program. To do this Pennington gave unselfishly his time and energy far beyond that expected of him.

He spent long hours after school and at night reconditioning tools, building student lockers, tool cabinets, and other necessities.

At the present he teaches nine classes, some every day, and others two or three times a week. They include full-time classes in home mechanics, a very practical course for boys and girls to use about the house, repairing such things as electrical fixtures, leaking faucets, window shades, etc.

Another is mechanical drawing. In this class advanced students learn the techniques and skills of drafting and lettering.

Classes in shop work include one general shop class daily for high school students, with three classes for the seventh grade on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and three eighth grade classes on Tuesday and Thursday.

The shop classes at the present time are built around wood - working, with the use of the lathe, drill press, circle saw, band saw, jig saw, disk sander power tools, and numerous hand tools. The more advanced students use the power tools, and the lower students, the hand tools, primarily.

Pennington hopes to expand facilities to include sheet - metal work in the near future, possible after school opens next fall.

Vocational education at Neville has taken a long stride, and, an even brighter future and better opportunities for the students in the city system are promised.

The more important aspect of Pennington's work, however, will always be the patience and skill he uses in giving the boys who have never had the chance — a chance to excel and feel the joy of success in the act of creating something "on their own".

In this sense, Pennington's work is of great value to the whole school, and the spirit of his friendship and close association, patience and tact, permeate the whole educational structure. The desire to excel, kindled so simply by the use of the hands, spreads to the mind and is carried over in the student, who develops a new zest for learning, to all major class subject matter.

Other attractions, the calf scramble and boot race were equally exciting.

The F. F. A. rodeo queen was Miss Betty Williams, pretty O. P. H. S. brunette who was introduced in a convertible.

Clowns "Fats" Jones and Franklin McKenny, who came in first in calf roping the first night, were among the most colorful treats of the evening.

Some 200 horses mounted by high school students participated in the grand entry parade.

The announcer for the two-day event was Ike Hamilton, local auctioneer. The Ouachita parish ensemble sang several western songs between rodeo acts.

Other events including girl barrel races and mane hold riding added to the success of the high school cowboys' rodeo.

tionalization demands provided they in turn show reasonable regard for Britain's rights and continued operation of the fields by the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company.

That goes beyond the position which the British themselves have publicly stated, which is that Iran has firm contract commitments about Britain's present oil field rights which can only be modified by the agreement of both countries. However, there have been reports from London, which are apparently well founded, that the British government is in fact prepared to negotiate with Iran on the basis of some form of nationalization, assuming the negotiations can be effective.

The U. S. note today reaffirmed this country's "deep interest . . . in the maintenance of the independence and territorial integrity of Iran," describing this as a cardinal principle of United States policy.

This generalization has been authoritatively interpreted here as a warning for Moscow that in event of serious internal trouble in Iran Russia would not, in the American view, have any excuse to intervene.

defense.

Delegates cheered but they didn't gather later to buzz each other about the possibility of having a military man at the head of the ticket they will pick in a Chicago convention the week of July 21, 1952.

If he doesn't run himself, Mr. Truman will go a long way toward picking the nominee. The guessing on that score ranged largely to Eisenhower and Chief Justice Fred Vinson.

There was practically no mention of the members of the party who have gained national recognition recently, such as Senators Douglas (D.-Ill.) and Kefauver (D.-Tenn.)

Senator Kerr (D.-Okla.), who was credited with making the best speech of the convention in his attack on the policies of General Douglas MacArthur, drew some attention as a possible vice - presidential candidate.

Few of the Democrats think, however, that if President Truman runs again Vice - Prsident Barkley will step out of the picture. If Mr. Truman doesn't run, they say Barkley is likely to be replaced.

Kefauver and Douglas might be appealing choices in that case.

shallow grave in the mountains Thursday, lay in a mortuary. The funeral will be held Monday in the First Baptist Church in Buena Park, 10 miles from here.

The Buena Park citizens were in mourning. They had scheduled the annual "home town" day for today. Patricia was to have taken part with her scout troop. But it was cancelled during the frantic search for Patricia, who disappeared after attending an afternoon movie a week ago today.

Forester Joe Schermann, who used his woodsman's lore in finding the child's grave in the woods, informed the sheriff's office that friends of the family had collected $400 in reward money for him but he doesn't want it.

Schermann said he had done only his duty and it is his desire that any such reward money be given to Patricia's parents, Mr and Mrs. Leonard Dale Hull.

Sergeant Sturgis said McCracken is still a subject for investigation in the unsolved case of Rochelle Gluskoter, six. She was kidnaped from her Los Angeles home in March, 1946. Hes skeleton was found nearly two years later in the mountains only about 12 miles from where Patty Hull was buried. Officers said McCracken was stationed at Santa Ana Air Base at the time of the Gluskoter kidnaping.

Detectives are still searching for the weapon used on the Hull child. There were 15 gashes on her head and two skull fractures.

were termed "inferior, inadequate and unsanitary."

After a closed meeting of the state board here today, Chairman Madison released a copy of the petition and a summons ordering the board to answer by May 29.

Madison said board members had voted to join the parish board in fighting the suit, which asks an injunction to end "any distinction based upon race or color in facilities and opportunities."

Superintendent Jackson said it was the first case of its kind in Louisiana.

Recently, however, Louisiana State University admitted its first Negro student under a ruling of the United States Supreme Court. The student, Roy Wilson of Ruston, later withdrew in a dispute over his qualifications.

Tureaud was Wilson's attorney.

In an hour-long open session today, the board voted cost-of-living pay increases, ranging from four to 10 per cent, for teachers and employes of state colleges and special schools.

The boosts, to be shown on each pay check as a bonus to meet rising living costs, apply only to personnel listed on school budgets approved today. Future employes will not share in the increase.

Budget details were unavailable. The board's staff said committee amendments reshuffled figures and revised totals have to be worked out.

Schools whose budgets were approved today and whose personnel will get pay riases include:

Grambling College near Ruston, Louisiana Polytechnic Institute at Ruston; McNeese State College at Lake Charles, Northeast Louisiana State College at Monroe, Northwestern State College at Natchitoches, Southeastern Louisiana College at Hammond, Southern University at Baton Rouge, Southwestern Louisiana Institute at Lafayette, the State School for Spastic Children at Alexandria, and Baton Rouge's two state schools for the deaf and two state schools for the blind.

The faculty pay boosts will be scaled: Ten per cent on annual salaries under $2000, eight per cent on those between $2000 and $3000, six per cent on $3000 to $4000, and four per cent above $4000.

In other actions, the board:

Amended its minutes to show its building committee had unanimously rejected a proposal to buy property at Alexandria for the state school for spastic children.

Voted to ask Gov. Earl K. Long to include in his expected special legislative session call a building appropriation for the spastic school.

Awarded these building contracts — $205,948 for a law school at Southern; $347,328 for a girls' dormitory at Grambling; $120,258 for alterations and renovation of Grambling's dining hall and presidents home; $95,000 for Concordia parish trade school at Ferriday; about $100,000 for water and sewerage improvements at Southern.

Board committees met here for the past two days in closed sessions.

tice to appoint an arbitrator to settle the dispute.

The application invoked article 22 of the 1933 agreement by which Iran gave the company the right to exploit oil resources in the southern part of the country for 60 years. The article provides that differences shall be settled by arbitration and, in the event of the two parties are unable to agree on a choice of arbitrators, a third or a sole arbitrator shall be appointed by the president of the world court at the request of either party.

A few hours later the British government, owner of about 53 per cent of A. I. O. C.'s shares, gave its full weight to the application with a request that the court declare the Iranian government is obligated to submit the dispute to arbitration. Failing that, the British said Iran should be held responsible for an act "contrary to international law."

The 5,000 - word British complaint said Iran apparently was "not responding" to a British offer to negotiate a settlement of the row.

The 5,000 - word British complaint said Iran apparently was "not responding" to a British offer to negotiate a settlement of the row.

Britain reserved the right to ask the court to take steps for the protection of her nationals in Iran and to preserve the existing situation—that is British ownership of the company — pending a final court ruling.

Six days ago Iran's finance minister rejected the oil company's request to the government to name an arbitrator. Nationalization of oil was based on national sovereignty, he said, and was not subject to arbitration or negotiation. He demanded later that the company name representatives by May 30 to help carry out the law.

mended deferment for juniors who are in the upper three-fourths of their class or score at least 70 on the test; for sophomores in the upper two-thirds or with a score of 70; freshmen in the upper half or with a score of 75.

Seniors who want to go on to graduate school should be in the upper half of their class or score 75 to be eligible for deferment under the recommendations.

Students, who applied for deferment before the deadline last midnight, have all been granted draft delays until August 20.

Before then, results of all the tests will have been tabulated, and put in the hands of local boards.

Questions for the test were prepared by the staff of experts of the educational testing service in Princeton, N.J. The service will use electrical scoring machines in grading the papers.

FIVE TESTED HERE

Five persons took the draft-deferment examinations yesterday at Northeast Louisiana State College. Four of them were students enrolled in college.

A. L. Tatum, instructor in social sciences and who administered the examinations, said that the tests would be given again on June 16.

Reason for the small number of persons taking the exam here was attributed to the R.O.T.C. program which precludes such tests. Col. M. H. Griffith, commander of the unit, explained that those enrolled in R.O.T.1C. have already made commitments and are exempt from them.

At Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, Ruston, 139 turned out for the tests.

K. F. Hewins, director of publicity at Tech, said that the number included freshmen through seniors.

that national honorary organizaon.

The gift each year will be a beautifully engraved loving cup.

The award is in keeping with the purposes of Phi Theta Kappa —the encouragement of scholarship and the development of leadership and character among its members.

Mrs. Lewis Slater, the donor, has for many years contributed in numerous ways to the development of the community by her own distinguished service to the educational, religious and cultural circles of the Twin Cities. Mrs. Slater has always been especially interested in encouraging the education of young people in this area.

The recipient of the first Eloise Ethridge Slater Award was Janie Graham of Monroe, president of Phi Theta Kappa, who was selected to receive the gift by vote of the organization.

She is a pre-medical student who holds many offices sucl. as president of the Women's Recreation Association and treasurer of Les Marquises. She also is a member of the Student Council and Pow Wow staff.

Faculty sponsor of Phi Theta Kappa is Mrs. Louise Gray Lemert, who has served in this capacity for several years.

That trio of beautiful and ever graceful linden trees on the northeast corner of the campus of Central Grammar school are in their prime now for they are in bloom. Old timers here like to tell how these trees came there. They were planted through efforts of the late Mayor Forsythe at the very turn of the century. They have grown through the years to become towering trees with pleasing shape and pretty leaves. Their flowers are sweet-scented. Though not plentiful, these trees are found in scattering places in many parts of Louisiana. The leaves have a family characteristic of being unequal at the base, and are three to five inches long, toothed, bright green above, and paler green underneath. They flower in early summer and tiny blossoms are cream colored and fragrant. In all Lindens the flower stem comes out of the middle of a long narrow false leaf.

up in record numbers, field dispatches said.

Correspondent Becker said the UN commanders appeared to be making a daring bid for victory.

An Eighth army briefing officer said there were at least three major movements of withdrawing Chinese. Elements of three Chinese corps were retreating northwest from the vicinity of the Choyang river to Hwachon, 55 miles northeast of Seoul.

Twenty to thirty thousand Chinese fled northeast toward Inje, four miles north of the 38th of the east central front and 75 miles northeast of Seoul.

Another 5,000 to 10,000 were moving northwest from the Hyon area toward Inje. Allied tank forces were reported already in Inje ahead of these retreating Reds.

Correspondent Nate Polowetzky said that Fifth air force fighters found good hunting in the Inge sector. Pilots said they killed at least 1,000 enemy in this sector alone. Field dispatches said the eastern sector was carpeted with enemy dead.

Murky weather hampered the air force and slowed mechanized UN pursuit forces, knocking the Reds out of their last footholds in South Korea.

Every available Allied warplane which could find a target in the rainy weather hammered the long lines of Red soldiers, trucks, field pices, ox cars and pack animals.

"We've never seen anything like it before," one amazed officer told AP Correspondent Jim Becker. "For the first time in the Korean war the Chinese are moving in the daytime. The road north of Hwachon was crowded with an estimated 10,000 Reds today. Other roads north were equally jammed."

But there was a note of caution. Somewhere ahead of the charging Allied tanks and infantry lay two corps of fresh Chinese troops, possibly 60,000 men.

None of these has yet been committed. Officers said they were capable of striking back at any time.

On the east-central front, Becker said, an Allied patrol entered Inje, four miles north of the parallel and some 25 air miles inland from the east coast. Inje is the largest village within the rapidly expanding Allied bridgehead across the Choyang river.

and Japan are secure against any predictable attack.

On the matter of Russia's attitude toward the Korean war, Collins said: "I don't think they like to see their Chinese Communist friends get beaten like they are."

"Just as a humanitarian thing?" asked Senator Hickenlooper (R.-Iowa.)

"No . . . I think from a military point of view they are beginning to get concerned about it," the general replied.

He finished testifying a short time before his scheduled takeoff on a flight to Europe, where he plans to confer with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, commander of the combined western defense force.

The senate investigators called Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, air force chief of staff, as their witness on Monday. They may get around to questioning Secretary of State Acheson before the end of next week.

Collins said that because MacArthur "violated a policy," the joint chiefs of staff feared he might commit some other policy violation "of a more serious nature."

He made the statement after Senator Cain (R.-Wash.) told him he had unintentionally done "a first rate hatchet job" on MacArthur in his testimony yesterday.

In yesterday's testimony, Collins said MacArthur went against "a clear directive" from the joint chiefs that "as a matter of polto be used in the last miles of the United Nations' northward push.

He also testified that the chiefs suggested MacArthur might consider halting the U. N. advance about five miles south of the Yalu river boundary.

El Dorado Oil Company Closed

El Dorado, Ark., May 26.—(AP)—Lion oil company's huge chemical plant here was shut down because of a strike.

In a lengthy prepared statement, the company said it has become impracticable to continue operations because storage space at the plant is filled and movement of products by rail has been stopped by pickets.

About 200 A. F. L. machinists walked off their jobs at the plant May 4 when negotiations for a new contract broke down. The union set up a picket line, which was honored by some 300 C. I. O. oil workers union members at the plant.

Operations have continued at the plant but a company official said production has been curtailed. Chief product of the big installation is ammino nitrate.

tiate invitation was never delivered to the Communists. Instead, on March 24, General Douglas MacArthur issued a statement of his own offering to meet the Chinese commander to talk peace in the field. MacArthur said at the same time that if U. N. attacks should be launched on China's coastal areas and military bases, the Red nation would probably face military collapse.

Secretary of Defense Marshall, when he testified in the hearings on MacArthur's discharge from command, said the general's any chances for a peace settlement at that time.

Marshall said the United Nations was preparing an announcement of readines to discuss a settlement — the announcement to come from President Truman — when MacArthur made his own peace-talk offer. "It became necessary to abandon the effort," Marshall said.

MONROE SIDETRACTS NATCHEZ INDIANS, 4-2

JOHNNY MYERS MASTERS TRIBE WITH 7 - HITTER

Sports Windup Series With Redskins In Single Game Here Today

Johnny Myers, a railroad switchman called out of the Missouri Pacific shops for a five - day look by the Monroe Sports, sidetracked Roy Jayne and the Natchez Indians in a Cotton States League pitching duel here last night, 4 to 2.

The Indians and Sports tangle here again this afternoon at 3 o'clock in a single game at Legion Memorial Stadium in the final of their series. Greenwood follows Natchez here for three games.

Myers tamed the potent Redskins on seven hits and walked only three batters. Meanwhile, Jayne was holding the Sports to six hits and whiffing twelve, but he issued seven free passes, four of them figuring in Monroe scoring drives.

Although the Sports, who had lost five of their six previous starts came through for protection of their second - place standing in the league, the hitting power was practically left up to Catcher Virgil Bivens, Outfielder Bobby Greene, and Third Baseman Carl Tucker to give Myers the punch needed to put the victory across.

Bivens was the boy who shared the limelight of the night with Myers as the Monroe backstop smashed out three hits, one a double, in four times at bat, knocked home two runs and scored once himself. Greene connected for two hits and scored twice. Tucker hit safely only once, but the blow knocked home the first run of the game in the second inning.

Bivens started Jayne's downfall when he tapped the Redman for the first Sports hit, a single after two were out in the second inning. Myers drew a free pass, advancing Bivens to second from where he scored when Tucker lined a single into center field. Myers went to third on Tucker's blow and scored on a wild pitch.

The Sports then rocked along until the sixth before they punched across run No. 3. With one out, Greene lined a single into right field. He went to second when George Andrews walked and scored on another single by Bivens.

The Indians, who got four of their hits off Myers in the first three innings without scoring, bunched the other three in the eighth to count their two runs.

Pat Lorenzo opened the Natchez offensive with a triple into right center field. R. W. Bruce, fielding the ball, threw in to Jesse Van Winkle who booted the ball and then lost it. Lorenzo romped on home before Van Winkle located the ball. Bruce Ware, who collected three of the Indian blows for the night, singled and went to second on a wild pitch. Bill Jones flied out to Bob Hamric in left field. George Torres singled Ware to third. George Ruzina then grounded to Tucker at third. Tucker rifled the ball to Van Winkle at second, forcing Torres, and then Van Winkle, working for a double play, threw wild to first, and Ware scored as Ruzina went on to second on the error. But Myers fanned Jim Skidgel and the Indians were through for the night.

A final Monroe counter crossed the plate in the Sports' half of the eighth. Greene walked, went to second on a sacrifice by Andrews and scored on a double by Bivens into right center field. Bill Thaxton almost made a spectacular running catch of Bivens' drive, but he was foiled when Lorenzo, Indian center fielder, knocked him down and they collided just as Thaxton was making a one-hand stab at the ball.

SPORTSPURTS: Johnny Jones' family from Talco, Tex., were on hand for the first game of the El Dorado series in the Oil City. They drove over to witness the first sacker get three hits in four times at bat, including a double, drive in one run and handle ten chances flawlessly afield . . . George Luffey, a Monroe lad, has been signed by the Alexandria Aces of the Evangeline League, an affiliate of the Shreveport farm system. Luffey graduated from Southwestern Louisiana Institute this week after starring with the Bulldogs diamond crew. He won eight games and lost none this past season. However, his professional debut Friday night came a cropper as he was blasted from the mound in the early innings . . . Speaking of the Aces, Infielder Charlie Cline who went to Alex in a trade for Bobby Greene last winter, has been released by the Rapides parish club. Cline caught on with Harold Webb's Midland club of the Longhorn League. Midland works with Oklahoma City and Cline, who winters in West Monroe, worked out with them during spring training . . . Another member of the 1950 Sports, Slim Jim Willis on whom the Red Sox have a $20,000 option, has appeared in 20 of Shreveport's 50 games so far this season. The Doyline Thin Man has a four and two record with the Parkermen . . . Manager Mazur had six extra base hits in his total output of nine safeties this campaign through Friday. His production showed four doubles, one triple and one home run, to give him a lofty .750 slugging average. You can compare that with Len Morrison's 1950 slugging percentage of .590 . . . The Sports are continuing to leave those potential tallies languishing on the base paths. Through Friday they had stranded an even 400 in 41 games. . . . Tuesday night the third in the series of "Casey at the Bat" drinking glasses will be given away to each of the first 300 ladies who enter the main entrance at the park . . . Natchez Business Manager Tom Glennon and his wife have been called to New York by the death of Mrs. Glennon's mother . . .

Miss Berg Passes Favored Zaharias

White Plains, N.Y. May 26.—(AP)—Shooting a steady 38-38—76, sturdy Patty Berg, forged to a one-stroke lead over Babe Didrikson Zaharias at the 126-hole mark in the 144-hole Weathervane Women's Open Golf Tournament today.

The Babe entered today's round with a two-stroke margin over Patty, but she had her troubles with the rugged and rolling Knollwood Country Club course and finished today with 41-38—79 and a 126-hole total of 529 to Miss Berg's 528.

The two are the only entrants among the 13 pros, who started the tour at Dallas, then moved to Pebble Beach and Indianapolis before coming here for the final stage of the tournament, who have a chance at the $5,000 grand prize.

Mobley In Non-Title Mat Scramble With Al Getz At Kallio's Tuesday

Serios Paried Against James For Handicap Semi-Final Match

Rex Mobley, once more ruler of the world's light heavyweight wrestlers, appears at Gus Kallio's Arena against Al Getz in a non - title match here Tuesday night. It will be the main event on a card that also included a handicap scramble between "Buff" Serois, dethroned by Mobley a week ago, and the youngster from Texas, Johnny James.

Promoter Kallio last night said Mobley had declined to make the appearance against Getz a title affair because he will be meeting Serois again in a championship bout tomorrow night at Shreveport.

Mobley and Getz will battle over a 90-minute time limit distance, two falls to win.

The handicap affair between Serois and James becomes the first such match to be offered here by Kallio and probably the first for the Twin Cities.

The semi-final will be a 35-minute time limit affair in which Serois must pin James before the time limit catches him in order to win. James can win by repulsing Serois' efforts or taking a fall himself. If there is no fall before the time limit ends, James will be the winner.

Kallio said Serois, when asked to take on James, had declined with the excuse "he's too little to be wrestling me."

"Why, he could give anybody a hard match," Kallio answered.

"I doubt it," was Serois' retort. "It wouldn't take no time to finish him and the fans wouldn't get their money's worth."

"Just give him a match and we'll see how fast it takes," Kallio challenged. Then the promoter went on to explain a handicap setup for Serois. It wasn't long before Kallio had agreement from both Serois and James for the handicap curtain-raiser beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

PALE HOSE BLANK INDIANS FOR 9TH STRAIGHT, 6 TO 0

New York Americans Whip Athletics, 8 To 5; Red Stockings Rout Nats

Cleveland, May 26. —(AP)— Paul Richards' white hot Chicago White Sox kept their pace on the trail of the leading New York Yankees today by shutting out the Cleveland Indians 6 to 0. That made it nine in a row on Chicago's road trip.

Right - hander Ken Holcombe was the mound victor. It was his second shutout and fourth win of the season, on the basis of five scattered hits.

Holcombe was the last Chicago pitcher to lose a game. He succumbed to the Indians on May 13 in Chicago, when Cleveland won 11 to 2 with Bob Feller.

The Sox gamered 12 hits off Mike Garcia and Lou Brissie, and batted around in the third inning, when they tallied three runs. Two more came in the eighth and an extra run in the ninth.

With Paul Lehner and Holcombe on base, having walked, Nelson Fox's double opened the third-inning scoring. Ed Stewart's single drove in Holcombe, but Fox was out at the plate on Orestes Minoso's grounder. Stewart then came in on Eddie Robinson's single.

Brissie took the mound at the start of the eighth and with one out let Gus Niarhos double down the left field foul line. Holcombe aided his own cause with a double to right, driving in Niarhos, and after Fox had sacrificed, Hank Majeski batted for Stewart and singled to center, scoring the pitcher. Bob Dillinger, running for Majeski, made the third out trying to steal.

The superfluous run in the ninth came when Minoso doubled and went to third on a two-bagger by Robinson, then scored as Jim Busby raised a long fly to left field.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. S.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. Personality, apparently. A survey by Sociologist Anselm Straus found that 8 out of 10 engaged and recently married persons had formed a clear-cut idea of their "ideal" mate. However, in 2 out of 5 cases, their chosen mate had not met their ideas as to looks, but 3 out of 4 were very close to or 100 percent like their ideal as to personality. Our booklet, "How To Be Popular," sent at cost 15 cents (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Yes. According to a recent magazine article, any one who says he never lies is a liar. We have to lie—at least say things that are not facts—to defend our lives. If a woman says, "I know I am ugly," it would be brutal to say, "everybody knows that." But it is, in a sense, lying out of the situation to say, "You have a fine profile." Another kind of lie may be something said or acted to deceive.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. Yes. Prof. Troy Organ describes a plan whereby each senior girl keeps a notebook entitled "My Philsosophy of Life at Present," recording her thoughts and attitudes toward herself, toward others, toward the natural world of science, toward freedom of the will, individual responsibility, religion and immortality. Since it is "My Philosophy At Present" she will often re-examine it. Every one should do this.

Want To Be Popular?

Just follow the easy methods explained by famed Dr. A. E. Wiggam in his 28 page booklet: "How You Too Can Be Popular."

Contains tests and 14 easily applied rules. You'll find them highly effective.

This booklet, offered as a service to readers, sent at cost, 15 cents (coin only). Just ask for "Popularity Booklet." Address Dr. A. E. Wiggam, care of this newspaper. Allow 10 days for reply. Enclose stamped, self-addressed return envelope for reply.

Drainage Project Soon To Start

Ferriday, La., May 26.—(Special)—The first shovelful of dirt in Concordia parish's half-million dollar drainage project will probably be turned in about three weeks, it was learned Thursday from a meeting of the police jury at Vidalia with Herman Gibson, Ferriday, presiding.

Low bidders on the first contract, which includes removal of 669,100 cubic yards of dirt from a point halfway between Vidalia and Ferriday, to Cross Bayou, and also in the northeast corner of the parish were: Kisner Construction Company, Lismore $81,024.36; and H. B. Hornsby, Bossier City, $89,549.57.

These bids will be submitted to the state department of public works for approval of the low bidder.

Bids on the second contract will be received at the next meeting of the parish police jury. This includes 900,000 cubic yards from just above Vidalia to Black Hawk.

STARTS THURSDAY AT JOY

Dramatic climax. A Mexican police officer arrests murder suspect Lew Ayres while Victor Jory and Teresa Wright look on in Niven Busch's absorbing production, "The Capture." Lew Ayres and Miss Wright co-star. Jory is top-featured in the RKO Radio release.

'The Capture' Opens At Joy

With Lew Ayres and Teresa Wright in the stellar roles, Niven Busch's production, "The Capture," for RKO Radio distribution, presents an engrossing combination of drama, romance and mystery in a Mexican setting.

Ayres has the role of the field boss for a small American oil company in Durango, and Miss Wright portrays the unhappy wife of Edwin Rand, who enacts a roving oil driller. After a payroll holdup, Rand is accused of the crime and Ayres pursues him and kills him. But his conscience troubles him over the thought that he may have slain an innocent man, and he quits his job, seeks out Miss Wright, and tries to make amends.

A thrill-packed climax is arrived at when Ayres, determined to clear up Rand's guilt or innocence once and for all, becomes involved in another killing and finds himself a fugitive from the police just as Rand was.

With their unconventional roles and the unusual setting, both stars are said to deliver stand-out portrayals. Victor Jory as a sympathetic Mexican priest, is featured in the cast along with Jacqueline White, Jimmy Hunt and Rand.

DANCING ON THE CEILING!

Nimble-footed Fred Astaire, often accused by his fans of appearing to dance on air, does even better than that in the new technicolor musical, "Royal Wedding," now showing at the Paramount Theater. He dances on the ceiling! This novel routine is one of the stop-the-show highlights of the new romantic tuner which also stars Jane Powell, Peter Lawford, Sarah Churchill and Keenan Wynn.

'Born Yesterday' Plays At Capitol

The Broadway stage has had a few productions more durable than "Born Yesterday," now at the Capitol Theatre in screen form with Judy Holliday, William Holden and Broderick Crawford starred. This spectacular stage hit ran for 1,643 performances on Broadway and grossed in the neighborhood of $5,000,000 in its numerous American engagements alone.

Besides the Broadway production, two companies played "Born Yesterday" throughout the U. S., and it was successfully staged in London, Paris and, in addition, 16 other countries aboard. Since it is a play with universal appeal, "Born Yesterday" has also been produced in hundreds of cities by all kinds of theatrical companies.

Movie stars, with an eye out for a sure-fire "personal appearance" vehicle, almost automatically select "Born Yesterday." Summer stock companies consider the comedy just what the play-doctor ordered. Among amateur theatrical groups of all kinds, "Born Yesterday" has justifiably become one of the outstanding repertory favorites. The play is a "natural"—for actors, audiences and for box-offices. Small wonder almost every actor and actress in Hollywood sought roles in the Columbia Pictures' version of the great play.

When Max Gordon was about to present Garson Kanin's stage play, "Born Yesterday," in Philadelphia, Miss Holliday was engaged for the Billie Dawn role, to replace the star originally set for the part. Rehearsing continuously for practically the next 72 hours, she opened with a sensational hit which was shortly afterwards duplicated on Broadway. From the day the play opened, Billie Dawn and Judy Holliday were synonymous.

When Columbia Pictures purchased the screen right to "Born Yesterday," the company launched a hunt whose primary intent was to discover, if possible, whether any other actress could fill the role of Billie Dawn better than Miss Holliday. Nobody could. Judy Holliday was signed for the movie to re-create her stage role.

Not all housewives realize that there are only three basic kinds of tea—black, green and oolong. Each of these three comes from the same kind of bush but they are processed differently, and it's this processing that makes the difference between them.

THEATRE TO AID IN POLIO FUND

Chapter Here To Present 'Great Caruso' As Benefit For This Cause

Miss Freeda Mickel, chairman of the Ouachita parish chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc. announces that the local chapter is cooperating with the Tem Theater in promoting Monroe's first showing of the "Great Caruso." The Tem Theatre, formerly the Capitol Theatre is located at 129 DeSiard St., is being completely remodeled and will re-open with the showing of the "Great Caruso," MGM's elaborate song-filled technicolor production June 8-14. Patron tickets will be sold in advance and will include one admission to any showing of the "Great Caruso," and a contribution of 50 cents to the Ouachita parish chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The total price of the ticket is $1.00.

Because of the large deficit of the local chapter due to increasing numbers of polio cases in this area, Miss Mickel urged the public to see this sensational picture and buy their patron tickets early to be assured of a good seat. "You will not only be assisting the local polio chapter," she said, "but you will be entertained with the greatest array of singing talent ever assembled on a Hollywood sound stage, by Mario Lanzo."

MGM's "The Great Caruso" tells the story of a great voice, that of the immortal, Enrico Caruso, starring Mario Lanza, Ann Blyth, Dorothy Kirsten, Jarmila Novotna and Blanche Thebom.

This technicolor musical masterpiece brings to the screen a tender love story and many of the world's most beloved songs. It is considered one of the most ambitious and spectacular musical productions ever undertaken in Hollywood.

"The Great Caruso" is receiving the highest praise from the nation's most important critics. In two short years the golden voiced Mario Lanza has swept to the pinnacles of Hollywood stardom. Lanza made his screen debut in "That Midnight Kiss," which proved a nation-wide box office success. He followed it with another hit, "The Toast of New Orleans." New York critics claim his voice as "the Greatest Tenor Voice Since Caruso."

Patron tickets will be on sale June 1st at Walgreen's Drug Store, Dew Music Co., The Palace, Hewitt's Piano Store, and at the office of the theater. Phone 3-6890.

OPENS AT PARAMOUNT WEDNESDAY

VIVECA LINDFORS and GLENN FORD scan the skies in this scene from Columbia's great film, "THE FLYING MISSILE."

'Flying Missile' Bares Bomb That Hunts Prey

America's most secret weapon hits the screen for the first time in "The Flying Missile" new Columbia production starring Glenn Ford and Viveca Lindfors which opens Wednesday at the Paramount Theater.

Because of security measures, no motion picture on this subject has heretofore been permitted. Now through the full cooperation of our armed forces Columbia Pictures was able to film "The Flying Missile" on board submarines and surface ships and at shore installations of both the navy and army.

"The Flying Missile" is the story of the astonishing super-weapon which literally stalks its own prey and of the supermen behind it. It took a new kind of science to perfect the "The Flying Missile" and a new breed of man to launch it.

Glenn Ford has the role of one of these men a submarine commander whose craft has been selected for experiments with guided missiles. Aided by Viveca Lindfors who portrays an admiral's secretary Ford and his men carry out the experiments at the constant risk of life and limb.

Nine famed navy submarine officers whose war records read like feats of fiction play themselves in a scene with Ford. Included in the group are Commander Richard H. O'Kane holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor and Commander Joseph F. Enright responsible for sinking a Japanese aircraft carrier of 49,000 tons, the largest ship sunk during World War II.

One of the most exciting sequences in "The Flying Missile" shows the launching of a giant rocket at Point Mugu California the navy's guided missile training center. Nine cameras followed the launching from the ground. In addition the rocket was photographed from a plane streaking more than 400 miles per hour.

Henry O'Neill Carl Benton Reid and Joe Sawyer head the supporting cast of "The Flying Missile," which was produced by Jerry Bresler and directed by Henry Levin. The screen play was written by Richard English and James Gunn.

Slavs Seeking To Control River

Vienna, Austria, May 26.—(AP)—Fragmentary reports from Romania tonight indicated Yugoslavia is making little headway bucking Russia's control over the Red Danube, a murky stream once called Blue.

Yugoslav delegates are attending a meeting in Galatz of the International Danube Commission to consider a draft of new shipping regulations applicable to the whole length of the lower river from Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania, and Bulgaria.

Yugoslav press dispatches indicate Premier Marshal Tito's representatives are seeking — if nothing more — to drive a wedge between Russia and her satellites.

Actions of the commission's secretary, a Russian named M. Morozow, have been described as "illegal" by the Yugoslav news agency Tanjug in accounts from Galatz. Tanjug charged that Morozow was leading all the attacks against Yugoslavia and that his actions threatened the life of all lands on the Danube's banks.

Protesting presentation of a draft plan for navigational rules before it was discussed thoroughly by a working committee, the Belgrade newspaper Borba declared the Galatz meeting "unmistakenly confirms the intention of the Soviet union to damage the interests of the Danube peoples instead of serving their economic needs."

Monroe Morning World

Sunday, May 27th, 1951

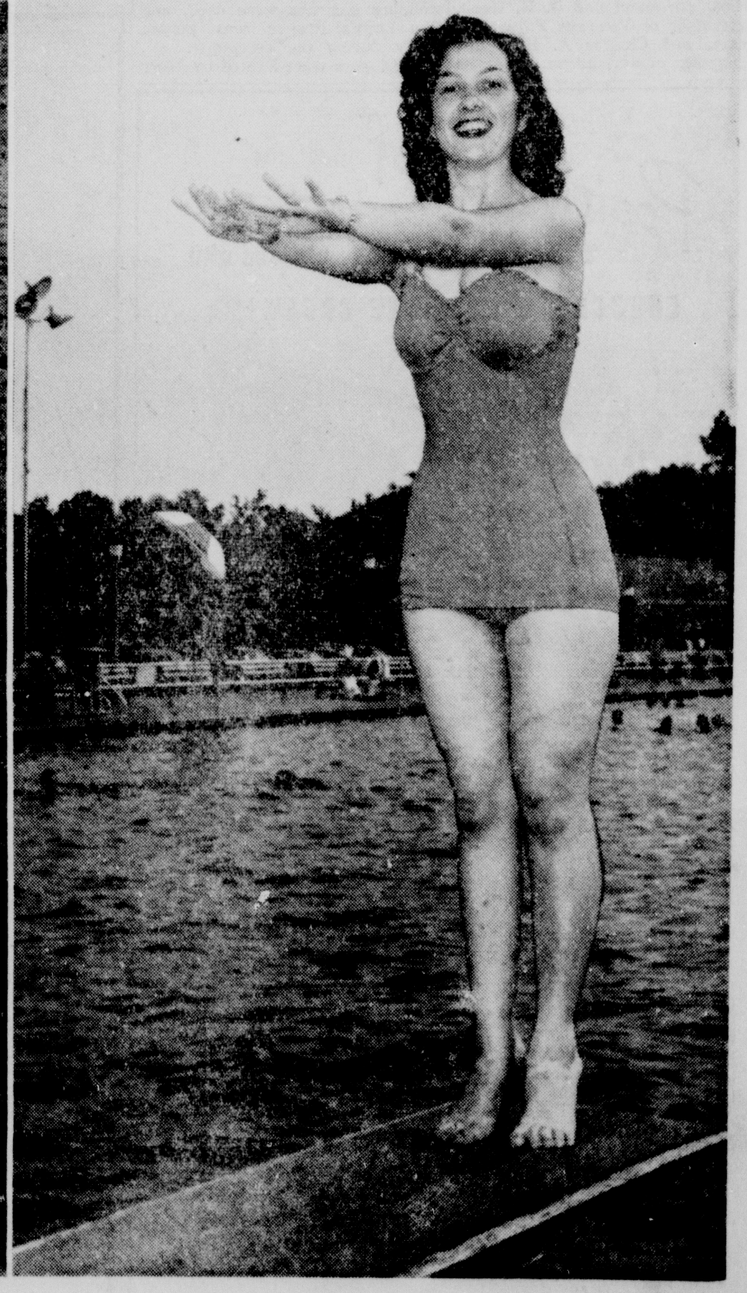

Swayze's Natatorium, which officially opened Sunday, May 20, has been a popular place for Monroe girls during the past week. Sun bathing and swimming were enjoyed by a group of high school and college coeds taking time out from their final exams to enjoy a cool dip in the municipal pool. At the upper left, Miss Barbara Barker relaxes on the diving board after a refreshing swim. Upper right: Getting an early start on a sun-tan are Miss Alice Montgomery and Miss Anita O'Kelly. Center (left): Two N. L. S. C. girls, Miss Sue Posey and Miss Gladys Roussell, prepare for a swim. Lower left: Miss Vonnette Austin and Miss Kathryn Guerriero chat with Lifeguard Bill Rodriguez. ## Miss Earlene Welch Is Bride Of Sgt. Ivan F. Jones

Fairbanks Baptist Church Is Scene Of Impressive Double-Ring Ceremony

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony performed Wednesday evening May 2, in the Fairbanks Baptist Church, Miss Earline Welch became the bride of Sgt. Ivan F. Jones. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Welch of Fairbanks. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jones of Wilmot, Arkansas.

Vows were exchanged at a double ring ceremony before a setting of white calla lillies and southern smilax amid gleaming lighted tapers in candelabra. The Rev. A. Schwab of Monroe officiated.

Miss Jane Gill played a program of nuptial music as the guests assembled and accompanied Billy Joe Rowe who sang "Always" preceding the entrance of the wedding party. The traditional wedding marches were used, and The Lord's Prayer was played softly during the ceremony.

The tapers were lighted by Mary Katherin Welch, sister of the bride and LaRue (Rudy) Jones, sister of the groom. They wore dresses of pink organdie over taffeta and rainbow colored nosegays in their hair.

The bride given in marriage by her father was a picture of lovliness in a blue marquisett dress over taffeta appliqued with rows of blue satin on the skirt and bodness in a blue marquisetts dress ice. She carried a white Bible topped with pink carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Anita Welch, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore blue marquisett over taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Spurgeon Welch Jr., served as best man and ushers were Charles Welch and Frank Pierce.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Monroe until Sgt. Jones is re-assigned.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Mollie Henry and Mrs. L. M. Welch Sr., grandmothers of the bride Mrs. Agnes Gipson, Mr. & Mrs. Joe Naff & children, Mrs. Woodrow Hogard, Miss Jerry Warner, Mrs. Frank Coopes, Mrs. T. H. Marx and Mr. & Mrs. Elbert Jones, Mrs. E. C. Stewart, all from Monroe. Mr. & Mrs. T. H. Mercer and son, and Miss June Mercer of Bastrop. Mrs. Leona Hunter and Mr. Benny Seymour of Delhi, La.

A turkey may be roasted without dressing; but if you do stuff don't pack dressing in too tightly. The fluffiest dressings are those that are packed in with a light hand.

Installation Of New Officers Highlight B. & P. W. Club Meeting

In celebration of the installation ceremony on Tuesday evening, May 22, the evening's festivities were preceded by a banquet at Hotel Frances. The tables were beautifully adorned with unique arrangements of multi-colored spring flowers in addition to programs and place cards expressing the season's motif. Right here once again we express to Miss Maibel Hood our appreciation for the aura of beauty she effects for us on these special occasions.

Mrs. Earl Coates opened the program with an appropriate invocation after which we were delightfully entertained with several piano selections by the talented Miss Jane Wallace.

Mrs. T. L. Witter, past state president and editor of "Pelican," from Alexandria, in her own inimitable and gracious way, installed new officers for the 1951-52 club year. May we announce them as follows: President, Mrs. Louise Massey; vice-president, Mrs. Helen Trichel; recording secretary, Mrs. Ruth Cooley; corresonding secretary, Mrs. Christine Coleman; treasurer, Miss Alma Terry.

With a serenade especially composed for Mrs. Pauline Welch, the popular outgoing president, Mrs. Edna Vaughan presented to her on behalf of the club, a large silver tray, handsomely engraved.

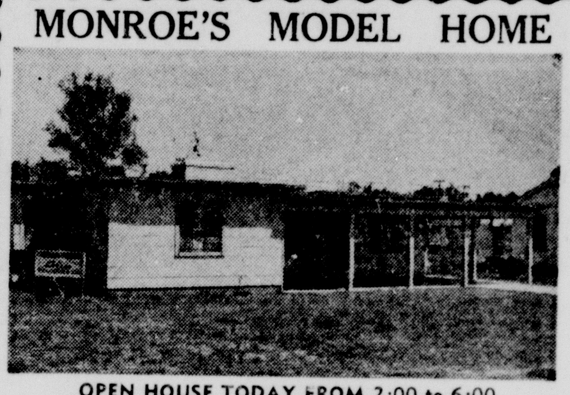

Mrs. Welch was further honored by being unanimously invited by the past presidents to become a member of the past president's council. Past presidents — Mrs. Bessie Skinner, Mrs. Gladys Miles, Miss Mary O'Kelly, Mrs. Laura Slator, Mrs. Lucille Mathis, Miss Ruth Thomas and Miss Maibel Hood—with clever verses praised Mrs. Welch's personal traits and club accomplishments during her tenure of office, expressing also their pleasure in having her join their ranks. Mrs. Bessie Skinner then presented her with a president's guard.

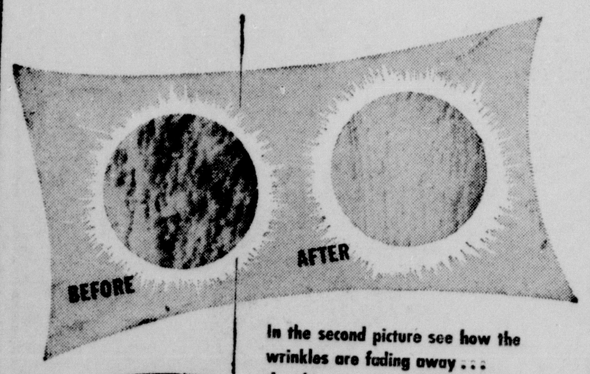

With the benediction and singing of the emblem song another installation ceremony came to an end.

In attendance were: Miss Eloise Helm, Mrs. Gladys Miles, Mrs. Laura Slator, Mrs. Bessie Skinner, Miss Maibel Hood, Miss Alma Terry, Mrs. Louise Massey, Mrs. Helen Trichel, Mrs. Christine Coleman, Mrs. Edna Vaughan, Mrs. Faye Heard, Mrs. Lucille Mathis, Mrs. Florence Powers, Mrs. Johnnie S. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was wearing a wedding gown of satin with panels of Chantilly lace in the skirt and a drop-shoulder neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a halo of tulle entwined with seed pearls. A brooch of gold leaf and seed pearls, a pin which has been in her family for seven generations was worn by the bride as something old. For luck the bride had a sixpence given her by Mrs. John B. Weidner. She carried lilies of the valley and stephanotis clustered around a yellow - throated white orchid.

Mrs. John Constantine served as matron of honor wearing yellow marquisette over taffeta with a cape effect of lace, and a lace peplum. She wore a picture hat and carried purple irises tied with yellow ribbon.

The bridesmaids, Miss Mignonne Wilson, Miss Fern Marie Weidener, Miss Janice McCarthy and Miss Marion Claire Greely, wore gowns like that of the honor attendant, with yellow half-bonnets.

The flower girl, Mary Charlotte Daniel, was in white organdy with a wreath of yellow and white daisies in her hair and a bouquet of the same flowers.

Mr. John McCarthy served his son as best man. Ushers were Mr. Louis West, Mr. Thomas M. Sayre, Jr., Mr. Hugh C. Watson, Jr., and Mr. Edward A. Jones.

Mrs. West wore a mauve dress with white accessories and a corsage of a purple vanda orchid.

The mother of the groom was in green with mauve accessories and a corsage of a purple orchid.

Due to the recent death of the bride's grandfather no reception was held.

For her wedding trip, the bride changed to a pink lace dress with white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will make their home at 726 Westmoreland Drive.

The bride is a graduate of Julius Freyhan High school in St. Francisville, and attended Belhaven college in Jackson, Miss.

The groom was graduated from Rayville High school and the University college of engineering.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. D. B. West of Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holden and family of Fort Smith, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy, Miss Janice McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. George Ineichen, Mrs. Lee Edward Iinchen, Mrs. Marie Jorden, Mr. Joe Ineichen, Miss Jane Sayre, Mrs. G. F. Purvis, all of Rayville, La.; Mrs. John H. Martin, Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. Eloi Girard of LaFayette, La.; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Holden of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bradford of Alexandria; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean of Little Rock, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Gubler of New Orleans.

Camellia Garden Club Installs Officers

The Camellia Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Ola Mae Passman Thursday evening. Guest speaker was Mrs. H. G. Thompson whose subject was on "Small Plants."

Mrs. H. G. Thompson urged the members to teach the young children how to plant and later in life they will remember the little things they were taught. Early teaching creates a desire to help care for the flowers instead of destroying them.

Another interesting feature of the club at this meeting was the installation of officers. Elected were: Mrs. L. L. Tapp, president; Mrs. Francis Hochstetler, vice-president; Mrs. Donnally, recording secretary; Nita Walker, corresponding secretary; Cecil Jones, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Bailey, reporter; Mrs. Henry Poulan, parliamentarian.

One new member was welcomed to the club, Mrs. J. H. Paylor.

Delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all members present and one guest, Mrs. Louise Jones.

'WELCOME TO HOLLYWOOD' PARTY HELD BY CLAIBORNE P.-T. A.

A carnival spirit pervaded the atomosphere at the Fair Grounds Saturday night, May 19, when Claiborne P.T.A. held their "Welcome to Hollywood" party.

The opening feature of the night's festivities was a community sing led by Mrs. Herman Williams.

Mr. Jim Reynolds and Mr. Garland Shell acted as "Masters of Ceremonies" throughout the evening's entertainment and the program moved along with never a dull moment.

The skeptical audience accepted each booby prize warily for it was evident they were created to cause amusement, and not for personal satisfaction. Judge Jesse Heard received the foot long cigar but after taing second thought decided against smoking it. Mrs. .I. D. Wallace Jr. was awarded the 'rubber thumb' carrying with it the privilege of an all-expense trip by the well known 'going-my-way' route.

Supt. ack Avants tried out his histronic ability in the talent test, but having such competition as Mrs. Ben Davis and Mrs. Mack Avants, he yielded kindly to the ladies.

Mr. Truman May received the crying towel and pointed out that his right to weep came from the unpopularity of part of his name. The cup and saucer was awarded to Mr. Francis Ortis. Miss Geraldine Dickerson won the Tom Brenneman rose bush, and Mrs. William Sorreals the tablecloth.

Mrs. G. F. Holloway received a beautiful orchid for being the eldest guest, and graciously and humorously accepted all that goes to a woman when receiving her first orchid. The wishing ring was won by Mrs. J. C. Dickerson.

As a break in the program, Mr. Garland Shell led the people present in a game, "Musical Chairs", and much hilarity resulted when two or three were competing to secure the same chair.

Next came the high-light of the evening's performance when a bevy of ladies led a fashion parade of members wearing the funniest hats ever worn in public at Caliborne. After elimination of the other contestants the competition narrowed down to Mrs. Ben Davis, Mrs. William Sorreals, and Miss Gerry Dickerson. In the finals, Mrs. Ben Davis captured the prize.

Numberous other prizes, donated by the friendly merchants of West Monroe were awarded to the members and guests present. Much credit is due Mrs. Carroll Adams and her workers for the success of this financial undertaking.

At the conclusion of the evening's entertainment, the teachers passed refreshments to the members and guests seated at the tables arranged for that purpose.

Cadeville Home Demonstration Club Has May Meeting

Mrs. Cleburn White was hostess to the members of the Cadeville Home Demonstration Club on May 22.

The following leaders gave reports: Mrs. James Sturdivant, Mrs. Lee Wilder and Mrs. Cleburn White. Mrs. Euna D. Spielman gave a demonstration flower arrangement.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following: Mrs. E. S. Hamilton, Mrs. James Sturdivant, Miss Ola Golson, Mrs. I. P. Ray, Mrs. Lee Wilder, Mrs. Spielman, and Mrs. Cleburn White. Three visitors, Mrs. F. P. North, Mrs. F. G. Tinsley, and Mrs. Henry Spanler.

The Jun. meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. W. E. French.

Purely Personal

With the approach of summer young women of the Twin Cities' thoughts are turning from their careers, homes and the mode of routine living to a long-awaited vacation.

Resort prices drop as the temperature rises making it possible for the average family or working girl to spend at least two weeks in a glamorous new environment, prohibitive in cost during the winter season.

Speaking of vacations brings to mind the trip recently enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schubert. The two couples flew to Miami Beach in Mr. Brown's private plane and from there they flew to the Bahama Islands.

In Nassau, they spent an entire week enjoying all accomodations and courtesies of the Island. Guest cards to the country club assured the vacationers of entertainment both day and night. However, the two couples were inclined to spend much of their time deep sea fishing and browsing through quaint shops.

Mrs. Schubert brought back attractive souvenirs made of sea shells for her three sons and other members of her family. In addition one of the most attractive souvenirs is the wide brimmed hat of rafia made by the natives.

In most homes about this time of year travel folders are being scanned—but not so in the Carl McHenry household. Almost every week end is a vacation for the McHenry family since Mrs. McHenry transformed a cabin on the plantation into a delightful vacation spot.

There is a sharp contrast between the modern and the primitive and is what Mrs. McHenry strived for when her husband gave her the cabin. Every room has a wood fireplace and all the furniture is covered with gayly colored chintz.

Dining in the evening is by candlelight and every room has an old-fashioned kerosene lamp. The cabin is ideally located away from the beaten path of nestle on the Ouachita river.

In direct contrast is the McHenry home on Fairview with its spacious high ceiling rooms, well ordered lawn, swimming pool and tennis court.

Monroe rolled out its welcoming carpet for Admiral Hugh Goodwin and his attractive daughter, Sydney, when they arrived here via airways from Washington recently.

Admiral Goodwin was the principle speaker on the Armed Force Day program but he found time to visit with old friends and enjoy the special brand of hospitality Monroe reserves for its native sons and duaghters. Among the most enjoyable courtesies extended the Admiral was a cocktail party in the beautiful gardens of the Gordon Cumming's home on Island Drive.

Miss Goodwin, the admiral's daughter, is an exceptional young woman who received her degree from Harvard and now holds a very responsible position in Washington.

With everything in order in the summer home of the Robert Laytons in Estes Park, Colorado, Mrs. Layton, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Dawkins and Mrs. C. U. Johnson, has just returned to Monroe from a motor trip to the mountains.

The object of the trip was to get the cottage in readiness for occupancy by the Layton family next month. The cottage is ideally located where the snow - capped mountain peaks are in constant view.

Mrs. Johnson no sooner returned from Estes Park than she began to scan vacation magazines with the thought for another vacation with her husband, Dr. Clifford Johnson. They are planning a motor tour of the Great Smoky mountains.

Mrs. Louis Milner is one of Monroe's most enthusiastic travelers. Not too long ago she crusied in South American waters with relatives and now she is vacationing in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. A. M. Robbins is in South Hadley, Massachusetts where she will spend three weeks in the home of her daughter and son - in - law, Captain and Mrs. Robert Sandford.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gillmore of Columbia, South Carolina arrived today to be at the bedside of Mrs. Gillmore's mother, Mrs. J. J. Devereux, who has been confined to her bed for six weeks.

Mrs. Sidney Calongne of Baton Rouge who has been visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Jr., and Mr. Smith, has returned to her home accompanied by Mrs. Smith and son, Art, who plan to visit in Baton Rouge and relatives in Lafayette and Plaquemine.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller, Sr., and Miss Midge Phillips have returned from Shreveport where they were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caplis at Magenta Plantation. Mr. and Mrs. Caplis have completed a two week visit in the Keller home. Mrs. Caplis, the former Miss Betty Keller, was feted at several social events given in her honor while in Monroe.

Fred Key Golson I' and Elizabeth Ann Golson, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Golson, are among the 1951 Louisiana Tech graduates.

CHIEF TUSQUAHOMA CHAPTER, D. A. R., MEETS WITH MRS. HENRY HAMILTON

"I pledge allegiance . . ." the piping voices of school children in their pledge to the flag opened the meeting of the Chief Tusquahoma Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in the home of Mrs. Henry Hamilton on Monday evening when members of the Junior American Citizens Clubs were the guests of honor.

Mrs. Gilbert Stovall, regent, presided over the meeting and introduced Mrs. Amiee Cook, principal of the Mitchell School and director of the Junior American Citizens Clubs which are sponsored by the Chief Tusquahoma Chapter. Mrs. Stovall stated that, under the capable direction of Mrs. Cook, these clubs had won two awards at the state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution, held in Shreveport.

Mrs. Cook spoke on the aims and purposes of these clubs and gave a resume of the work accomplished during the past year. She said in part: "The purposes of the Junior American Citizens Clubs are to teach loyalty to the United States of America, founded upon a knowledge of why our nation deserves allegiance; good citizenship in terms of practical service to home, school, community and country, and to train our young people, through study and practice, to become intelligently useful citizens. The work of a Junior American Citizens Club is vital, for nothing is more essential to our country's future than the preparation for full citizenship of her young people. Our boys and girls should be familiar with America's history, and learn to appreciate their priceless heritages. They should be made to understand that freedom such as they have is not a universal thing, that their forefathers struggled to maintain it through many difficult years. Furthermore, they themselves will be faced with many problems in the future relating to security of their own personal freedom. If our citizens of tomorrow are to survive in the complex organization of nations, they must have knowledge of world governments and of world diplomacy. "Other countries have realized the importance of training their children," Mrs. Cook continued. "Surely we in America need to train our children to sane, unselfish thinking, and rational Democratic living, so that they may become influential citizens of tomorrow." The official club song, anthem and creed were presented by Sandra Allsbrook, Vera Gould, Alice Faye Bennett and Arlon Frazier.

In the short business session, the minutes were read and approved and reports of officers and chairmen were heard. Of paramount significance was the report of Miss Mary Louise Ellis, national defense chairman, who explained the functions of this committee and concluded with this statement: "We must do all we can to hasten remobiliztion; to prepare for civil defense; to work for America first, but an America cooperating with like-minded nations. We must remember, at the same time, that we are custodians of the greatest Constitution any nation ever had, and guard it zealously. There are preservation of our republic and its Constitution, of our personal freedom are much dearer, much more important." The following officers were unanimously elected: Mrs. George Lawn, regent; Mrs. Jack Willis, first vice regent; Mrs. Roy E. Lee, second vice regent; Mrs. Howard Williams, recording secretary; Mrs. Jesse Norris, corresponding secretary; Miss Mary Louise Ellis, treasurer;

Mrs. V. O. Allen, registrar; Mrs. Warren McGee, librarian; Mrs. Lela Cullom, chaplain. The impressive D. A. R. ritual was used in the installation of the officers.

Mrs. Lawn spoke briefly on the responsibilities of the regency. As her first official act as regent, she appointed a committee to draw up resolutions of appreciation for the outstanding work of Mrs. Gilbert Stovall, who had served as organizing regent of the chapter and first regent, and whose rare organizing ability and genius for leadership had guided the organization to a greatly increasing membership and the winning of four state awards. The committee is composed of Mrs. Tom Rainbolt, Mrs. Warren McGee and Mrs. Reba Harper.

During the social hour, the group was served punch and a variety of delicious confections by the hostesses. Mrs. Stovall presided at the crystal punch service which was placed on a damask covered table and surrounded by magnolia buds and leaves. White candles in silver candelabra flanked a central arrangement of Easter lilies. In the reception rooms, floor baskets of Easter lilies and low bowls of sweet peas were arranged with great artistry. Serving as hostesses with Mrs. Hamilton were Mrs. Roy Lee and Mrs. J. O. Miller.

ST. MATTHEW'S P.-T. A. PRESENTS 'OLD FASHIONED STYLE REVUE

The hands of time turned backward on last Thursday night, when the members of St. Matthew's P.-T. A., presented their "Old Fashioned Style Review."

Mrs. E. L. Ritter, wearing a 1916 model, was Mistress of Ceremonies, she opened this entertaining revue with:

"Since the swift pace of modern living demands occasional and complete relaxation, the members of St. Matthew's P.T.A., have planned for your enjoyment this journey back through the years, turning back the hands of time to Great-grandmother's day when the ride in the surrey with the fringe on top was in vogue, and on through the days of grandmother, when the Charleston was the rage.' ## JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Try To Neutralize Opponent's Trump

By Oswald Jacoby

"Two and two make four," said my friend Alfred Sheinwold, "so two and three should make — how many?"

"Three," I answered, wondering what the catch was.

"Right," he told me, displaying the hand shown today. "Declarer must lost two trump tricks and three diamond tricks. Two plus three equals three, so South makes his contract. Right?"

The arithmetic may be a bit sketchy, but the bridge is certainly accurate enough. Sheinwold knew what he was talking about, since he played the hand and made four spades without any trouble at all.

He won the opening lead in his own hand with the ace of hearts and laid down the ace and king of spades. When West failed to follow on the second trump, Sheinwold gulped and went after the clubs.

Dummy took two top clubs, and Sheinwold ruffed a club in his own hand. He got back to dummy with the king of hearts to ruff another club. Then he ruffed his last heart in dummy, crossing his fingers as he did so.

When East had to follow suit, the contract was home. Declarer merely returned dummy's last club and ruffed for the tenth trick.

Now he gave up the three diamonds and the two trump tricks—but they all got crammed together into only three tricks. East had to waste his good trumps on two of his partner's high diamonds.

One of the many lovely prenuptial affairs honoring Miss Sunshine Hutchins and her fiance, Will Sam Kendall, Jr., was the old fashioned supper aboard the "Brown Kraft" with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hilton, hosts.

Monroe Literature Club Meets At Bayou DeSiard Country Club

The Monroe Literary Club was delightfully entertained at their recent meeting at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club. Mrs. D. A. Altick and Mrs. J. S. Worley were hostesses.

The meeting was opened by the vice-president, Mrs. Iralee Massey, in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. W. Womack. The club collect was read and the members answered to roll call.

During a short business session the club members voted to have as their subject next year, "The World Today."

The program chairman, Mrs. J. S. Worley, then introduced the guest speaker of the afternoon, Miss Frances Flanders. Miss Flanders, in her inimitable manner, brought to the club a very interesting review of "Neither Five Nor Three" by Helen MacInnes. This is a novel concerning a subject that the world is interested in today—communism. The author shows how one can become innocently involved in communism by not being careful of their associates and the organizations they belong to.

During the social hour which followed the hostesses served delicious refreshments to the following guests and members: Mrs. J. H. Drake, Mrs. Jack Howard, Mrs. Guy DuPriest, Mrs. Clyde Evans, Mrs. J. E. Baugh, Mrs. S. H. Wilson, Mrs. W. T. Ellis, Mrs. J. F. Choate, Mrs. J. D. Kelly, Mrs. Hugh Lawrence, Mrs. E. W. Lockhart, Miss Frances Flanders, Mrs. A. M. Kite, Mrs. J. F. Stone, Mrs. Iralee Massey, Mrs. C. D. McAdams, Mrs. F. L. Ferrell, Mrs. J. S. Worley and Mrs. D. A. Altick.

Bridal Couple Exchange Marriage Vows In Impressive Home Ceremony

At a ceremony characterized by simple dignity and beauty, Miss Jo Marie Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hamilton, exchanged marriage vows with Gale K. Billhorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Billhorn. The marriage was solemnized Friday evening, May 4th, at the home of the groom's parents, with pastor of the First Baptist Church of Monroe, Dr. James T. Horton, officiating.

The bridal couple exchanged vows of the impressive double-ring ceremony at an improvised alter in the living room. The alter was banked with baskets of gladioli with branched candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride was lovely in a beautiful white collimer linen suit with all white accessories, for something old she wore pearls which were handed down to her from a great great grandmother in Holland. She was wearing a purple orchid shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Douglas Moore, a close friend of the bride, served as her matron of honor and only attendant, was wearing a light pink suit with navy blue accessories, and a corsage of white carnations with rainbow colored ribbon.

Mr. Leslie Semmes, a close friend of the groom, served as best man.

Mrs. H. B. Hamilton, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding a lovely navy spring crepe model with white accessories she was wearing a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom was wearing a navy two-piece with pink accessories, she also was wearing a corsage of pink carnations.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was overlaid at one end with a miniature bride and groom, an arrangement of white daisies with a white satin bow centered the table flanked by candelabras holding tall white tapers. The couple cut their wedding cake with a sterling cake cutter belonging to Mrs. Edith Davis, an aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Davis presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Dell McAdams, aunt of the groom, cut the wedding cake for the guests.

Immediately following the reception the bridal couple left for their wedding trip to the gulf coast. Mrs. Billhorn plans to join her husband in the near future in Rapid City, South Dakota, where he is stationed at Weaver Air Force Base.

Serve leftover thin slices of ham with grilled bananas and a cheese sauce. This makes a fine Sunday night supper dish when accompanied by a green salad, hot crusty buttered rolls and lots of coffee

you know exactly what your Plymouth brakes will do

Whether you're stopping or slowing down, you want the brakes on your car to respond surely and consistently.

Plymouth's famous Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes do just that. Six hydraulic cylinders activate these brakes (the other two leading low-priced cars have only four).

In a Plymouth, you know exactly how much braking you will get for a given amount of pedal pressure—even under widely varying conditions. Instead of jerky "bites," you get smooth, swift stops. You have complete control because Plymouth braking is precisely controllable.

Equipment and trim are subject to availability of materials

you get a smoother, safer ride on any road

If you haven't already taken the great new "Safety-Flow Ride," we urge you to see your Plymouth dealer for a demonstration drive.

This new ride combines amazing comfort and roadability. When you suddenly come to a bump or rough stretch in the road, you don't have to fight the wheel to keep the car under control. New Oriflow shock absorbers, working together with balanced springing and other engineering factors, keep you gliding smoothly over the bumps on a level line.

The tension you used to know is gone. You drive more safely, too, because you're free to concentrate on what's ahead rather than on the road surface.

Sigma Alpha Chi Fraternity Entertains At Spring Formal

Officers And Sponsors Of The Northeast Louisiana State College Organization Introduced

In the soft lights of the Frances Hotel terrace Buster Crowley, incoming president of Sigma Alpha Chi fraternity, presented Miss Mary Elizabeth Meredith, the new sweetheart of the Northeast Louisiana State College organization. As a part of the special ceremony, she received a lovely bouquet of asters in shades of purple and orchid.

During this feature of the spring formal, the outgoing president, Joe Monroe, gave a similar spray of asters to Miss Maurine Linquist, who has borne the title of sweetheart during the year.

Master of Ceremonies Bobby Joe Jackson presented Miss Cynthia Guyton, Robertine Parker, Elizabeth Ann Doane and Jane Wallace, who have been chosen sponsors of the group.

Preceding the introduction ceremonies, fraternity members gave their dates attractive favors in the form of miniature garters trimmed in dainty nylon ruffles and studded with sequins.

One of the prettiest features of the evening was the grand march, led by Joe Monroe and Miss Jo Marie Scalia.

Music was played by Ben Burton and his orchestra.

After the dance a breakfast was held for members of Sigma Alpha Chi, their dates and special guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Monroe on Speed Drive. The affair was given by sponsors of the fraternity.

Bible Comment
By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

In Tennyson's poem, "Locksley Hall," the English poet, quoting the earlier poet, Dante, wrote: ". . . this is truth the poet sings. That a sorrow's crown of sorrow is remembering happier things."

Whether or not it be true, it was amply verified in the experience of the Jews in exile, when, upon the fall of the Southern kingdom of Judah, all but a small remnant of the people were carried off to Babylon.

The sorrow and the crown of sorrow have never anywhere in literature been more poignantly expressed than in the brief nine verses of the 137th Psalm.

The fact that the Psalm ends on a terrible note of imprecation might seem to detract from its beauty, but is understandable in times like our own, when war and exile, if they evoke great heroism and courageous endurance, bring out also from the darker depths of the soul expressions of passionate recrimination and vengeance.

The Jews in Babylon, in suffering and exile, valued too late the heritage that they had lost. But great prophets arose among them to remind them of what that heritage had been.

Thus out of suffering and exile came the noblest heights of Old Testament religion and prophecy, in chapters such as those in the latter part of the Book of Isaiah, that glow with the fervent love of Zion, and that portray a redeemed and glorified Israel in which all nations can be blest.

It is a satisfaction to realize that we ourselves are a part of the fulfillment of that prophetic vision and courageous world outlook. The best that we are, and in all that we hope to become, has its direct and most intimate source in our heritage from Judaism and Christianity. In ancient fact and in prophecy that heritage reaches back into what Israel learned through suffering. God had not cast away His people.

A word of warning, however, I think is necessary, when we speak of learning and betterment through suffering. We should not on that account assume any blessed-be-suffering attitude. Suffering is not something to be sought, or glorified. It would have been better if the Jewish people had never failed in response to God's call and covenant.

Jesus in His teaching and experience taught us about suffering. He was not an ascetic. He emphasized joy. In contrast with John the Baptist he described Himself as having come eating and drinking; and in His last hours as He approached the Cross, He prayed earnestly that the cup might pass.

But He submitted prayerfully to the will of God, and in that He fulfilled His divine purpose. We, too, may learn through Him to accept and endure what may befall us; but even near that closing hour Jesus bade His disciples to be of good cheer. The joy, of which Paul wrote so profoundly, is the heritage of the Christian.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

From the twelfth century children have been learning to repeat this prayer of faith. Back of that are the other centuries when families quoted the 121st Psalm from which it was doubtless taken...

"Your Guardian will not slumber,
He will neither slumber nor sleep."

Precious lad with the dimpled cheeks, knowing so little what the world holds of joy and of sorrow, of foes and of friends, of sickness and of health, of defeat and of triumph. Perhaps he has mother and father now and every care for his happiness. Who knows what tomorrow holds for him? You and I may not be near to counsel and to encourage. What then?

Wise and thoughtful for all the years ahead were the parents who early introduced the lad to his eternal Friend and helped him to be at home in the Father's universe. Some day every boy and girl will have to stand alone; will there be strength from hidden springs, a sense of sustaining Power? Some day every woman and every man must make a choice between the high way and the low; will there be light that shines on the good path the soul should take?

Every child born into God's world has a right to know that God is Creator and Sovereign, that His will finally must prevail. Every girl and every boy has a right to be sure that the universe is friendly and that its basic principle is Love. Every living person has a right to trust and to faith and to hope. Every human being has a right to know that he is made in the image of God and eligible to a place in the divine Family. We are both animal and divine spirit; God breathed His own Spirit into man and he became a living Spirit, like unto God. Every child has a right to live reverently as in the continuing and blessed fellowship with the Highest; he has a right to the adult helpfulness that puts his feet in the Way of Life. Teach him to say, "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."

Activities Get Underway At Girl Scout Troop Camp

The long screened porch of the camp building will be used for sleeping. Sally Hinkle of Troop 28 is shown arranging toilet articles on her apple box dressing table, while Mary Jo Davenport looks over the Girl Scout Handbook to see what interesting outdoor activities are suggested by some of the badges in the out of door field.

Setting tables should be fun with the blue plastic dishes and the stainless steel cutlery that has been given the camp. Mary Dee Gregory of Troop 34 and Beverly Rushing of Troop 27 are shown carrying dishes from the kitchen.

With Diane Carter in the background giving directions, Jo Ann Sloss makes ready to raise the flag over the camp site. Color guards, wearing colorful red sashes for the ceremony, are: Jeannette Brooks, Martha Harper, Carolyn Knight and Judy Lee. These girls are members of Troop 1, whose leaders are Mrs. R. E. Harrell and Mrs. L. F. Wilhite. The flag pole was made possible by Mr. J. G. Hicks of United Gas Pipeline Corporation.

Washing dishes may be a chore at home, but at camp it's fun. Having one's good friends to help do them in jig time while all sing a peppy round, makes even dishwashing a pleasant part of camp routine. Mildred Jean Levi of Troop 11, Judy Harrison and Jo Lockhart of Troop 4 are shown at the big sink in the camp kitchen.

Not all cooking will be done in the kitchen. On each trip Scouts will want to cook at least one meal or part of one out of doors. Beulah Burkett of Troop 21 and Jennie Lou Ervin of Troop 5 are whittling sweet gum sticks to use for cooking over coals. Scouts know to cut sticks long and straight, to choose young trees too crowded to grow up, to choose the less valuable woods such as the gum and persimmon, and are taught not to cut near paths or roads.

Peggy Traxler of Troop 5 and Yvonne Huckabee of Troop 27 are shown carrying their bedrolls from car to building. Neatly rolled inside the blankets and sheets are the girls' toilet articles, towel and washcloth, pajamas and all that they need for an overnight stay.

Timber Fortune Lies On Bottom Of Ouachita River

Jack Blanks, Skilled Water Diver, Says A Fortune In Cypress Timber Rests On The Ouachita River Bottom; Logs Have Been In River A Half-Century

By Louie Mathis
(Of The Morning World Staff)

A fortune in cypress timber lies at the bottom of a 15-mile stretch of the rambling Ouachita river.

Though some of the logs have rested on the river bottom more than a half - century, their value has increased. Cypress timber won't rot in water.

Jack Blanks, Monroe fire department captain and a skilled shallow water diver, has seen the logs and knows their value. Jack has been with the fire department for the past 29 ywars. He is director and swimming instructor during the summer months at Swayze Natatorium in Forsythe Park.

Before the first World War, Jack was one of hundreds who helped raft the massive cypress logs from their home in the D'Arbonne swamps to any of four or five sawmills situated on the West Monroe and Monroe river banks.

Those were the days when wagons forded the river just below the place where the old river bridge now stands. A sandbar there made the water shallow enough to wade across most of the way.

Since railroads and roads had not penetrated the swampland and hill country then, the Ouachita river current provided cheap transportation when Jack was rafting timber.

Many barges sank and still lie with the logs on the river bottom. Jack said that before he came to Monroe from Caldwell parish in 1913, two barges had overturned at the bend, coming from D'Arbonne into the river, with tons of valuable timber aboard.

The barges and their watery cargo are still there. Since going to work for the fire department in 1922, shortly after he was discharged from the navy, Jack has made several underwater excursions on the river in search of missing boat motors or some similar duty.

At some places along the river especially at the mouth of the D'Arbonne, Jack says he has taken his diving equipment and stepped from log to log most of the way across.

The logs belong to sawmills then operating in this area, though most of them have long since shut down. They include the Breece and Grayland Company at Grayland Bend, the Monroe Hardware Mill and Power Plant, the Dan Breard Shingle Mill, then standing at 1700 Riverfront, the Varman Sawmill on the West Monroe bank, and the Herring Sawmill, then located at McKinley and Riverfront streets.

The logs can be taken from the river with a four or five thousand dollar investment, a barge and an 'A' derrick to do the lifting, Jack said.

Whoever moves the logs may have to pay a dollar a piece if ownership is known, but even that drawback will be erased by the huge number in the river.

Phony Checks Are Passed At Stores

Jonesville, La., May 26.—Two Jonesville merchants have learned that a stranger who wants to cash a check may not have any money in the bank even though he can show a duplicate deposit slip indicating that he has hundreds of dollars in the bank.

On Saturday, May 12, according to Deputy Sheriff Arthur McMillin, a man using the name "Ewell Burns" deposited in the Catahoula bank in Jonesville a draft for $350. The draft was drawn on an Arkansas bank, and the man reportedly said he had just bought a farm near Jonesville.

Later, he made a purchase at a local store and wrote a check for $6.37 in payment. He exhibited the duplicate deposit slip as "identification."

A woman identifying herself as a "Mrs. Sellers" and apparently expecting a child, bought some baby clothes at another store and tendered a $45 check signed "Ewell Burns." The check was represented as having been given the women in payment for a second-hand refrigerator. The check was accepted and the woman took the change in cash.

Then the draft on the Arkansas bank bounced with the notation that there was no such account there. The checks bounced back to the local merchants. Deputy McMillin said he has found no one who knows "Burns" or "Mrs. Sellers" but he's still looking.

For teatime make sandwiches of apricot jam and a sprinkle of cinnamon. Spread outside surfaces with soft butter or margarine and grill in a hot skillet until golden brown. Serve at once, while still piping hot.

SCOUT CAMP TO BE DEDICATED

Dedication Ceremonies Scheduled At 3 P. M. Today For Troop Camp

The Ouachita Parish Girl Scout Camp near Sterlington will be officially dedicated at 3 p.m. today.

Girl Scouts will be host to hundreds of friends and civic organizations who have made the camp possible by financial assistance.

Families of Scouts and their friends as well as members of civic clubs who have assisted and given of their time, energy and efforts are urged to attend the special dedication program.

The camp site is reached by following highway 11 several miles beyond Sterlington to a sign that points to Ouachita City. There one turns right and Girl Scout camp signs lead to the camp.

Mrs. Clay Albright, president of the Ouachita Parish Girl Scout Council has mailed invitations to all friends of Girl Scouting as follows:

"On Sunday afternoon, May 27, at 3 o'clock the Girl Scouts will have a dedication program and open house at their new troop camp which is being made possible by citizens of our community. We are anxious that those of you who have contributed in any way to the success of the undertaking, share this important occasion with us.

"Will you invite your family, members of your club and your employes to be present for the short program ,which will be followed by an inspection of the building and grounds."

The Scout troop camp is the first Girl Scout camp to be erected for the local Scouts.

Police Jury Can Not Give Uniforms

Ferriday, La., May 26.—(AP)—The Concordia parish police jury would like to give $2,500 to the Ferriday band to buy uniforms, but it faces a legal tangle. It is illegal to make an outright donation to a school band.

But as Professor Forrest Griffin, bandmaster pointed out in his talk before the jury Wednesday, the jury can contribute for advertising purposes—and the Ferriday band, he said, is one of the biggest forms of advertising Concordia parish has.

The top band of its class in the state, Ferriday was the first high school band ever to appear in a national Legion convention parade. This was in Los Angeles in the fall.

An effort is being made to overcome this legal tangle.

Marine Recruiting Officer Is Transferred From Here

Master Sergeant George H. Hancock, U. S. marine corps, was detached from his present duties as non-commissioned officer in charge of the marine corps recruiting office here in Monroe May 1.

Sergeant Hancock enlisted in the marine corps on July 26, 1937 in New Orleans and took his recruit training in San Diego, Calif.

He served with the old fourth marine regiment in Shanghi, China from September, 1937, until February, 1938 and again from May 1939 until May, 1941, when he was assigned duty aboard the U. S. S. Independence from December, 1942, to July, 1943.

Later he participated in the invasion of Okinawa, Shima and Ryukyu in the spring of 1945.

Sergeant Hancock was then returned to China for occupational duty, this time in Tsingtao and stayed until July, 1946, when he was assigned to the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla.

Sergeant Hancock married the former Miss Edith Ruth Mayo of New Orleans October 17, 1947. They have one daughter, Nancy Jane who will be three her next birthday. His mother is Mrs. Maggie Hancock of Peterman, Ala.

AIRLINE HOSTESS

Miss Charlene Buck is shown boarding a plane for her first non stop flight as an official airline hostess from Denver, Colo., to Kansas City, Mo.

Bastrop Girl Achieves Her Lifelong Ambition

April 1, as a Continental Air Lines Convair winged its way from Denver, Colorado toward Kansas City, Missouri, a 21-year old Bastrop girl achieved her lifelong ambition.

Miss Charlene Buck who was "Miss Morehouse parish" last year and at the state beauty pageant presented her talent in the form of a speech, "Why I Want To Be An Airline Hostess," made her first flight as an official airline hostess.

The ambitious young daughter of Mrs. Leola Howell Buck of Bastrop was realizing an ambition and a goal she had been working toward for more than 15 years.

As a small girl, Charlene was always air-minded. Her father, the late Charles E. Buck, owned his own plane and Charlene was his pardner. They discussed his strong feelings for the air and various planes as they flew together cross country. The two even planned ahead of the day when Charlene would be an airline hostess.

Mr. Buck was killed in the crash of his plane six years ago in Georgetown, S.C., where the family resided for several years.

Instead of the tragedy dimming 15-year-old Charlene's dreams, she seemed only more determined to succeed in achieving the goal planned with her father.

Following graduation from Bastrop High School in 1946, Miss Buck attended Stephens college in Columbia, Missouri, where she received her degree in art in 1948. She took a number of courses in aviation while attending Stephens and upon completion of her work was awarded a certificate of competence in the field of aviation.

Later in the fall of 1948, she entered the University of Mississippi as a home economics major and while there she became a member of Delta Zeta, a national social sorority.

With her heart still set on aviation she changed schools the following semester and enrolled in aviation administration at Northwestern State College in Natchitoches.

Offering no hostess training, Miss Buck again transferred to the University of Denver where she became affiliated with Alpha Eta Rho, international honorary aviation fraternity. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in June, 950, with a major in Airline-Airport management.

Still being underage for entering her chosen field, Miss Buck had to delay the realization of becoming a hostess. Although a college graduate, she was only 20 years old.

The on - coming summer was spent in Bastrop with her mother and grand parents. It was during this time that she was elected "Miss Morehouse parish."

Her twenty-first birthday came on March 4. She immediately began contacting airline offices for a job and on March 9 was accepted by Continental. She spent two weeks on the "Extra Board" flying with other hostesses to Albuquerque, Santa Fe, El Paso, Witchita Falls, Tulsa and Kansas City.

The first of April she checked in, unassisted, on the Denver - Kansas City flight and was officially "Hostess Buck."

Since then, Miss Buck has been assigned a regular flight from Denver to Oklahoma City. Her flight usually makes a round trip.

In Denver, Charlene shares a five-room apartment with two other girls.

Her duties on the job are those of the average hostess. She checks in passengers and checks them out, sees that they are comfortable and serves meals. She works 80 hours a week and "meets a lot of interesting people."

Charlene contends the most important thing is "I'm happy—happier than I've ever been in my life. Up here I feel close to Dad, too."

The pretty airline hostess, a member of the Sunny South Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star in Bastrop will have an interesting opportunity to see the world when she has worked for a year with the air line.

At that time, she will have earned a vacation and can travel via airlines to any place in this country or even abroad. Hawaii is her first port of call on her much anticipated vacation if her present plans work and next Europe.

GIRL SCOUT CAMP WILL HAVE FORMAL OPENING TODAY

Today is the big day! There'll never be another in Monroe just it. This afternoon at 3:00 is our camp opening and who wants to miss a once-in-a-lifetime occasion like it. This afternoon at 3:00 is our Girl Scout family will miss beng present and we know the Kiwanians, Lions, Rotarians, and all other club members who helped make the camp possible will want to see it, too.

Mr. L. D. Pettit, who has personally given time to supervising construction will formally present the keys to the buiilding to Mrs. Clay Albright, president of the Girl Scout council. Mrs. William Roy, camp chairman, will be in charge of the brief program. Peggy Traxler, of Troop 5, will be commentator for the original skit, which will be given by girls from a number of Intermediate troops. These girls will wear Girl Scout camp suits and will demonstrate various camp practices used by Scouts.

The honor of being first to raise the flag over the camp has been given to Troop 1. Jo Ann Sloss, Diane Carter, Charlotte Starnes, Dorothy Craig, Jeannette Brooks and Carolyn Knight will take part in the colorful flag ceremony. Interspersed throughout the program will be Girl Scout songs and rounds by a corus of Intermediates under the direction of Mrs. obert Easterling.

Wednesday afternoon some forty girls gathered in the backyard of the Scout office to practice together with Mrs. Easterling. We were privileged to hear the singing and it sounded mighty sweet. Lucy Huckabee has worked on the girls' part of the program along with Ethel and we think they have both done a good job.

Members of the girl planning board will be hostesses, under the direction of Mrs. Louis Turner, Mrs. Carl Thompson, and Mrs. Sidney Williams of the camp committee. These girls, wearing satin ribbon badges, will be proud to escort visitors around the camp.

Oh, yes, there will be many gifts from troops and individuals. Dish towels and pot holders made by Brownie Scouts, a can opener for th kitchen, mirrors for the bathroom, plastic dishes and stainless steel cutlery for the dining room are some of the gifts we've heard about. Some are secrets that we don't know about until this afternoon.

One gift that shows real forethought and consideration is the bookshelves to be presented by Troop 28 in memory of Bebe Goyne, who was a member of the troop when the girls were Brownies. Later, when her health would not permit the activity, she had to drop out of school and Scouting. Upon her death recently, the troop voted a memorial at camp instead of flowers. Nancy Albright, we hear, has been chosen to present the gift.

Another gift that represents unusual thoughtfulness is the table made by Dr. J. W. Cummins. Doctor Cummins, who makes a hobby of woodwork, has offered to make the three sturdy trestle tables needed. We hope to see one of them on display this aftrnoon.

Now, we hope all our friends have kept their fingers crossed so that it won't rain, and we'll see you at camp this afternoon. Follow highway 11 for about four miles past the Sterlington bridge to the Ouachita City sign, where Girl Scout signs have been placed all the way to the camp. See you there!

"... OFTEN YOU SEE IN A FOOTSTEP WHAT YOU COULD NOT SEE IN A FACE." (WILLIAM ALLINGHAM) ...AND PUNJAB CAN READ FOOTPRINTS JUST FINE—HE CAN READ 'EM EVEN BACKWARDS.

THAT HELICOPTER! IF ONLY I COULD GET WORD TO THE BOYS AT THE FIELD!

NIKOLI IS A RESOURCEFUL ONE... BUT LET HIM GO...

IT IS WHERE HE HAS COME FROM THAT WE MUST DISCOVER NOW... SEE? HIS TRAIL IS CLEAR!

HM-M... MAYBE IT IS TO YOU, PUNJAB...

YES! HE CAME FROM STRAIGHT ACROSS THE VALLEY...

FROM RIGHT OUT O' TH' SIDE O' THAT MOUNTAIN? NO PATH OR NOTHIN'...

HA! THAT STONE! IT HAS RECENTLY BEEN MOVED!

"STONE," HE SAYS! THAT'S A KING SIZE BOULDER!

IT WAS BALANCED UP HERE! HE MUST HAVE TIPPED IT INTO THAT DEPRESSION!

FOR A REASON... LET US REMOVE IT AND BEHOLD THE REASON...

MOVE THAT ROCK? OUT OF THAT HOLE? HOW? WHY, THAT THING WEIGHS TONS! IT'D TAKE DYNAMITE TO BUDGE IT...

OR A STRONG BACK AND FIRM DETERMINATION!

AH-H-H! IT MOVES A LITTLE!

THERE!

LEAPIN' LIZARDS! WE DID IT!

YOU SURE DID, ANNIE!

D-D-DADDY! RIGHT OUT OF A HOLE IN TH' GROUND!

OH-H-H! "DADDY"! YOU'RE ALIVE! BUT HOW...?

IMAGINE OUR MEETING HERE, EH? BUT FIRST! WHERE'S NIKOLI?

I REGRET, SAHIB, THAT NIKOLI HAS ESCAPED... FOR THE MOMENT...

WELL, WE'RE ALL ALIVE, SO FAR... GUESS WE CAN'T COMPLAIN TOO MUCH!

I KEEP THINKING ABOUT HOW SUSPICIOUSLY BICEPS ACTS LATELY AND—

OH...ER...WHAT WERE YOU SAYING, SIR?

IF YOU DON'T PAY ATTENTION, MR HOT-ROD HAPPY, YOU'LL NEVER FLY JETS... YOU MUST DO...

TWELVE WEEKS OF SERIOUS FLYING IN THIS T-28 TRANSITION TRAINER!

...THE TRICYCLE GEAR ON THIS PLANE AND TH' COCKPITS ARE MADE QUITE SIMILAR TO THE T-33 JET...

...SO THAT WHEN A CADET GRADUATES FROM THIS T-28 TO THE JET, HE WILL FEEL SOMEWHAT "AT HOME"!

LATER

I CAN'T CONCENTRATE ON MY FLYIN' UNTIL I FIND OUT WHAT BICEPS IS UP TO...

...I OFTEN CATCH HIM STARING... LIKE HE WAS IN A "TRANCE" THEN, SUDDENLY HE'LL ACT NERVOUS, LIKE SOMEONE READ HIS MIND!

...YESTERDAY, HE GOT A MYSTERIOUS PHONE CALL FROM A WOMAN...AND HE GOT OPEN POST TODAY

HE'S LEAVIN' TH' BASE NOW IN CIVVIES... HE ACTS AS IF HE WERE FRIGHTENED TO DEATH!

LATER

THIS IS TH' CORNER WHERE I WAS SUPPOSED TO MEET HER...AND HERE SHE COMES, TALL TIMBER TESSIE!

TIMBER! WHY DID YOU COME TO ARIZONA?

I BOUGHT A RANCH HERE SO I COULD BE NEAR YOU! AFTER ALL, WE ARE ENGAGED!

...SAY...WHAT'S TH' MATTER? YOU ACT SO STRANGE... AREN'T YOU GLAD TO SEE ME?

OH, OF COURSE, TIMBER, DEAR! ...ER...I'M JUST SURPRISED TO SEE YOU!

...EVER SINCE I MET THE CRIMSON HAMMER, I'VE LOST ALL INTEREST IN TIMBER!

CRIMSON IS COLD AND CRUEL AND SHE ASSIGNED A MOST DANGEROUS, SUBVERSIVE TASK TO ME...

...I WILL BE RUINED IF I GET CAUGHT CARRYING OUT HER ORDERS...

BUT IN SPITE OF ALL THAT... I'VE FALLEN FOR THAT RUTHLESS CRIMSON!

...AND NOW, MY FRUSTRATED FEELINGS ARE TO BE FURTHER TORMENTED BECAUSE...

...EVERY TIME I LOOK AT TIMBER, SHE REMINDS ME OF CRIMSON, MY NEW SECRET LOVE!

RANDY, TELL US HOW YOU ESCAPED FROM THE KIDNAPPERS!

HE'S TOO TIRED TO TALK. REST YOUR HEAD, DARLING.

EXCUSE ME, LADIES.

OH, RANDY! (BLAH, BLAH.)

PRINCE RANDOLPH, THE WORLD'S RICHEST BACHELOR---

OUR MEN ARE SEARCHING FOR THE GIRL, MARY. WE'VE LOOKED EVERYWHERE. IT'S HARD, WITHOUT AN ADDRESS OR LAST NAME.

KEEP LOOKING!

MARY- THAT LOVELY GIRL- SAVED MY LIFE- THE FIRST PERSON I'VE EVER KNOWN WHO WANTED NOTHING FROM ME--

ALL THOSE GIRLS OUT THERE WANT THE WORLD'S RICHEST BACHELOR! ALL MARY WANTED WAS A KISS- AND THEN SHE RAN AWAY. SHE LOOKED SO POOR-- AND SO PRETTY--

SORRY TO INTRUDE, PRINCE RANDOLPH. I BELIEVE YOU HAVE SOMETHING OF MINE-- A RING.

OH, YES! I PICKED IT UP IN THE KIDNAPPERS' PLACE- THEN FORGOT TO GIVE IT TO YOU. TELL ME- THAT GIRL, MARY--

I THOUGHT YOU'D BE THINKING OF HER. YES, I KNOW WHERE SHE IS

YOU DO! WHY ARE WE STANDING HERE? LET'S GO!

SHORTLY, THE MAN WENT LIMP. UNDETECTED BY THE OTHERS, THE APE-MAN SHOULDERED THE BODY AND SPED BACK TO THE TRAP.

-WHERE, ACCORDING TO PLAN, HE HEAVED THE CARCASS TOWARD THE HIDDEN NET!

THE VICTIM'S WEIGHT SPRUNG THE TRAP AND THE TREE SNAPPED UPWARD. THEN TARZAN IMITATED THE CALL OF A CAPTURED APE!

HEARING THE CALL, THE NATIVES RETURNED QUICKLY-- BUT THEIR JOY TURNED TO FEAR WHEN THEY SAW THE MISSING TRAPPER SWINGING LIFELESS IN THEIR OWN NET!

AS THEY FLED, PANIC STRICKEN, TARZAN SILENTLY FOLLOWED. SOON THEY CAME TO A STRANGE, FOREBODING STRUCTURE AND ENTERED, LOCKING THE GATES BEHIND...

THE APE-MAN WAITED. THEN, AS DARKNESS SHADOWED THE OMINOUS BUILDING, HE HEARD A SPINE-TINGLING SCREAM! TARZAN RECALLED THE GIRL'S WARNING- WAS THAT "IT"?

DEEP UNDER THE MOON'S SURFACE FLASH FINDS HIS MYSTERIOUS FOE IS A HUMAN. HAMPERED BY THE WHIP-TENTACLES THAT HAVE ENTANGLED HIM, FLASH FIRES AT THE VILLAINOUS RAK, BUT MISSES.

FLASH CHARGES TOWARD RAK, AND HIS ENEMY RETALIATES BY SHOOTING A CLOUD OF NUMBING BRAIN-GAS. HOLDING HIS BREATH, FLASH TRIES TO FIRE HIS RAY-GUN, BUT THE GAS FILLS HIS EYES AND EARS, MAKING HIM FEEL STRANGELY WEAK AND DIZZY.

CHOKING FROM THE ACRID FUMES, FLASH TEARS OFF HIS SPACE-SUIT IN HIS AGONIZED ATTEMPT TO BREATHE. RAK GRINS EVILLY. "NOW," HE SAYS. "YOU WILL PAY THE PENALTY FOR FOLLOWING ME FROM THE DOOMED EARTH."

WHILE FLASH IS STRUGGLING FOR AIR, A GROUP OF RAK'S BEETLE-MEN ENTER THE FRAY. DAZED BY THE GAS, FLASH CAN ONLY PUT UP FEEBLE RESISTANCE AS THE BEETLE-MEN BIND HIM AND DALE WITH SPUN-GLASS ROPES.

FLASH, DALE AND PROF. BRITE ARE LINED UP AGAINST THE CAVERN WALL AND GIVEN AN IMPROMPTU TRIAL. RAK ACTS AS PROSECUTOR. "I CAME FROM EARTH TO MAKE YOU BEETLE-MEN POWERFUL," HE HARANGUES. "THESE STRANGERS WRECKED OUR MOON-GUN; THEY WANT TO CONQUER YOUR PLANET." FLASH TRIES TO REPLY, BUT THE BEETLE-MEN SHOUT HIM DOWN. THEIR VERDICT IS UNANIMOUS: "DESTROY THE EARTH-PEOPLE!"
